Part 1

Suzy walked around the poorly lit street close to the university dorms. She certainly avoided such streets due to her safety, after all, she was only 18 years old and she heard a lot of rumors about men trying to get their way with the young students.

With fear, she finally saw the store she has heard a lot of rumors about lately. If even half of them were true, perhaps there could be a way for her to achieve what nature denied her. "Good evening. I'm looking for Mrs. Wiley" Suzy said as she stepped into the strange store.

"Hello child. Come in and step closer, so I can get a good look at you" replied the owner of the store as her shaking hands invited Suzy in. Ms Willy's outfit showed without doubt she was a gypsy, possibly a fortune-teller. Her wrinkles and white hair indicated, she was an elder woman.

"Sorry to bother you Mrs. Wiley this late, but I heard the girls in the dorm gossiping about you offering counsel as well as magical solutions to their problems. Some even said you teach them how to make a potion to seduce the men they are in love with" Suzy said, hoping it was true.

"Oh yes. I'm a woman of many talents, my child. You don't get to be 200 years old without cutting some corners" Mrs. Wiley chuckled. "So, what can an old woman like me do for you?"

"This world is unfair" Suzy said with rage in her voice. "There are people with a lot of talents to enjoy a happy life, there are others that must face life with without any advantage" she sighed

"I see. Perhaps, you need help with your grades? I have a potion for that" Mrs. Wiley offered.

"I have always been proud to put the best of myself in any challenge life throws at me. I can keep up some good grades, but I made a tremendous effort to get them. Still, any of that matters if I can't defeat women like Violet, who is really smart, but that is not the reason I'm here," Suzy sighed. "My main problem is that no man wants to go out with me. I know I'm not bad looking, but there are plenty of girls more pretty and more charming than me!"

"Plenty you say?" Mrs. Wiley said, raising an eyebrow. "Maybe there is something I can give you"

Suzy didn't believe in magic things and certainly she didn't expect Mrs. Wiley could solve her problem. but hearing the old lady could have a solution for her problem was too good to be true. "Do you really mean it? Could you give me a magic potion to make me prettier?" Suzy asked.

"It's not a potion child" Mrs. Wiley said as she pulled a heavy old book from under her desk. "I know a spell that can help you, but it's too difficult to use" she said, opening the book to later move through its pages. "I will tell you this spell is based on transfer magic and with it, you can get one attribute from another person. Height, weight or beauty, whatever trait or skill you can imagine, but it can be only one thing and this spell can be casted once in your life" Mrs. Wiley said.

"Whatever I imagine" Suzy said, picturing Christen who was a great gymnast thanks to her athletic ability, then Angela who used her great beauty to make a lot of money. If she could gain any of those attributes, she could get any man she wanted "So, I can use this spell on anyone?"

"Unfortunately not. The spell only works between two people who know about its magic. If the other person doesn't know the spell, it simply won't work" Mrs. Wiley sighed. "Also, this spell can be used by a true friend who is willing to give one of her attributes to you. If you use the spell to take something without permission, the magic will let the victim punish you" Mrs. Wiley warned.

"So, even if they knew about the spell, without an agreement it can't be used?" Suzy asked.

"Well.." Mrs. Wiley said scratching her chin as she debated if she should tell something or not. "... this spell was created so one who has so much of something, could give a part of it or its whole to a true friend who needs it. The user even can give something of hers to her friend in return"

"But, I don't have such a friend, and I don't have anything to give her in return!"

"That is why this magic is so difficult. But consider this, it will be easier to make a friend, who can give you one of her best traits, than trying to steal something from her without her consent and face a harsh punishment" Mrs. Wiley warned her. "Things can go quite nasty that way"

Suzy sighed in disappointment. With such conditions even magic can't be helpful. "Let's say I don't care and I take the risk to use the spell anyway. What kind of "punishment" will I have?"

"All magic spells have their own backfire. In this one, if you steal a woman's trait secretly with its aid, and that woman notices it and argues with you, she will be able not only claim what you took from her, but take two traits from you in retaliation. That will be the cost you will have to pay for your sin. And since you can only use the spell once in your life time, everything that is taken from you, there won't be any way to recover them unless the other person use the spell on you"

"Wait! Are you saying that the victim can get two traits from me as punishment and she doesn't even need to use the spell?" Suzy said in disbelief.

"That's right. If you use the spell wrongly, she can take her revenge on you without using the spell. So, even if she had used the spell before or not, she can still punish you" Mrs. Wiley said.

"Yes, but if the victim hasn't used the spell, she can get two traits from the person that wronged her and still be able to use it to get more" Suzy said as her eyes lit up. "Mrs. Wiley, please, teach me that transfer spell. I have no true friends, but I think I can use it on otherways" she grinned.

Part 2

The word 'Roommates' is not the same as the word 'friends'. People sharing the same room could be friends or foes. Unfortunately for Suzy, her roommates were the former as they have the tendency of teasing her because she was not on their 'level'. They even hide a frog in the drawers where Suzy kept her bras a few days ago, scaring her greatly. Time to settle the score.

"If I leave these empty bags here, they will try to make fun of me again" Suzy thought as she left some bags from an underwear store over the trash can. "With my trap set, it's time to see if they took the bait" she said hiding out in the closet just in time her roommates opened the door.

Looking through the louvered door, Suzy could notice her tormentors walking in. Violet, Christen and Angela throughout their bags on Suzy's bed not minding at all making a mess on it.

"I'm going to take a shower. All the gym practice has left me quite sweaty" Christen said as she removed her shirt and shorts soaked in her sweat, but instead of putting those in the laundry basket, she put them on top of Suzy's pillow. "Suzy likes to put in a lot of effort in what she does. Hope she likes the smell of my success" she laughed as she tossed her underwear too.

"That girl is so easily bullied" Angela laughed as she took off her phone to take a selfie.

"I still remember how she reacted to the frog in her drawer. Her face bursting in tears was priceless. It will be hard to think of anything cooler, but fortunately I have the brains" Violet said.

"Perhaps you won't have to" Angela zoomed the image on her phone. "Look into the trash can"

After Christen went out of the shower, she saw Angela with a grin on her face as she tossed to her the bags from the underwear store. "Seems like Suzy got new underwear" she smirked.

"I call dibs on her panties" Christen said, rushing into the drawer before Angela did.

"That's not fair. I can't use her bras. They are too small for me" Violet said adjusting her glasses.

"Wait, what's this?" Angela said as she found a strange paper after rummaging Suzy's undies.

"This is not ordinary paper" Violet said, grabbing the piece of paper from Angela. "It's rolled-up with a seal on it. Perhaps Suzy made a special order?" she wondered as she broke the seal.

"That is my 'trap' you bullies" Suzy whispered inside the closet as Violet readed it's contents.

Transfer Spell. The magic on this scroll allows its user to give or take an attribute from another person. For the magic to work properly, the following conditions must be considered.

1. User and the receiver/doner must know each other's faces and names.
2. The receiver/doner must know about this spell and how to use it too.
3. The receiver/doner must agree with the user in the attribute to be exchanged in advance.

To use the spell to give an attribute say the following, 'Abiha Katanahacha, I want to give my 'mention the attribute' to 'mention the receiver'.

To use the spell to take an attribute say the following 'Abiha Katanahacha, I want to take 'mention the donor and the attribute''

Warning: This spell can be cast only once in a lifetime. From the three conditions, the spell can be used if only the first two are fulfilled, but omitting the third condition will end in a punishment.

The three girls looked at each other embarrassed. "I knew Suzy was a weird girl, but this is absurd" Violet said, totally disappointed as she tossed the paper into the trash can.

"Hold on your horses" Christen said, picking the paper. "If this works, I can use it to change my body shape for the ones of Mindy or Jordy?" she said. Being an athlete meant she had to burn most of her body fat, reducing her curves badly. "I won't mind having some tits" she grinned.

"I won't be so sure you can do it" Angela said "According to this, the spell is effective between two people who know its magic. They must know each other too or the spell won't work".

"If that spell works, I won't mind changing my eyesight. I really hate wearing glasses" Violet said as Christen and Angela sighed while looking at each other. "What? Why are you looking at me?"

"You could use this to take any attribute and you only think in your eye" Angela said annoyed.

"Well, unless you morons know who besides us know the spell, we can't use it" Violet sighed.

"Suzy must know it!!" Christen said, calling the girls' attention. "She is the scroll's owner, right?"

"So, by saying Abiha Katanahacha I want to take the eyesight from Suzy, will I get it? Don't be stupid" Violet shook her head in disbelief but suddenly she got a puzzle look on her face.

"What? What is it?" Angela and Christen asked in unison.

"I can see!!! Oh my... I can see!" Violet said after removing her glasses and being able to read the spell without them. She looked around seeing everything crystal clear. "It truly works!"

"Are you kidding me?" Angela said as Violet started to read the small letters in a poster at the other side of the room. "I knew Suzy's eyesight was pretty good, but damn. That's impressive"

Meanwhile, Suzy gritted her teeth as her fabulous vision became blurred. The darkness in the closet didn't help either, but she had to endure it. "Keep it cool Suzy. Don't reveal yourself, not yet" she whispered. "It's just a borrowing. I'll get it back with two more of Violet's precious traits

"Well, if it's real, I would like to try this brand new bra" Christen said as she hooked on one of Suzy's new purchases. After grabbing the magic paper from Violet, she closed her eyes. Then, taking a deep breath, she said "Abiha Katanahacha I want to take the boobs from Suzy".

The girls watched in awe as the flat nipples of Christen became quite hard as her non-existent breasts started to grow and fill out nicely the modest B-cup bra. "Oh wow! I would have love to have bigger tits like you Violet, but this small girls with the proper push up will turn some heads"

"Damn you Christen. Don't make fun of my breasts. They may be small, but they are way bigger than yours" Suzy whispered in disgust as she patted her flat chest and felt her empty bra.

"Uhm..." Angela said as she held the paper with the spell. "I'm not particularly thrilled to take anything from Suzy, but perhaps, I can use this spell after all. I have been eating a lot lately, and these rolls of fat are hard to hide with filters" she said, grabbing the flabs on her abdomen. "So, let's try the given option. Abiha Katanahacha I want to give my tummy fat to Suzy" she said.

"What?" Violet, Christen and, from her hideout, Suzy gasped in unison.

"Oh, oh, oh It's working!! I can't believe this. It's shrinking!!" Angela laughed as she felt the flabs in her abdomen shrinking and slipping through her fingers. "This is so great! I was worried about this tummy fat and now Suzy can carry it for me. Thanks to her, I'm becoming as thin as a twig"

Meanwhile, still in hiding, Suzy feels displeased as her tummy swollen in size. "Thin, but with a fat tummy is really the worst thing. You will pay for this." Suzy gritted her teeth with blazing fury. For a moment, she was glad that her bad eyesight and clothes didn't let her see the fat rolls growing on her. "Enjoy your flat abdomen Christen. You will regret having me as your enemy"

"This is amazing. All my tummy fat is gone. Come on and touch my tight belly" Angela encouraged them while her face was lost in ecstasy "It's so flat and firm" she moaned..

"I can't believe it!" Violet said as she touched Angela's plain abdomen.

"Neither can't I!" Christen replied as Violet's stomach was really as tight as she said. "I didn't think giving things could work out as good as that. We can't use the spell anymore, can we?"

"Seems we can't. The instructions said it could be only casted once in a lifetime" Violet said.

"That is a pity. Suzy doesn't have decent things to take, but certainly she made a fine trash can for our flaws" Angela laughed throwing the paper to take a new pic showing her trim abdomen.

"And about the supposed punishment for using the spell without Suzy's approval?" Violet asked.

"I am not afraid of Suzy's revenge. I will like to see her trying to take this from me" Christen said while cupping her small breasts. Once fully dressed, she greatly enjoyed her shirt being finally distended around her chest. "Let her try it and I will show her how strong I am" she said.

"Yes. Like she could face us before" Angela laughed fixing her hair.

"Well, it's settled then. We will deal with her tonight. Right now, let's go out and show off our new attributes" Violet said as she left her useless glasses on the table.

Once everyone left the room laughing, Suzy stepped out of the closet. Her blood was boiling in anger. "Bitches. You can imagine how ruthless my vengeance will be" she said knowing this wasn't the right time to face them. She needed to make preparations and fixing her eyes was the first on her list. Putting Violet's glasses on, she said "Enjoy your day girls, because tonight you will cry until you run tear dry" she grinned picking up the spell before laughing maniacally.

Part 3

When the night arrived, the three girls arrived at the dorm heavily drunk. Without planning, they ended up parting most of the afternoon and they were quite tired.

"Hello. How is everybody? Did you have fun?" Suzy said, using a lamp to illuminate the room.

The roommates were all startled to have Suzy greeting them. She always avoided speaking and much less made eye contact with them inside the room. They didn't know how to react to that.

"Suzy, are you wearing my glasses?" Violet said with alcohol bathing every single word.

"Yes, I am. Suddenly I can't see things right as usual. Funny how you seem not to need them anymore even if they are yours" Suzy said as she took off the glasses. Then, she dropped them on the floor to just step on them and destroyed them. "I may not be able to see well without them, but it won't matter for too long" she grinned as she walked toward her tormentors.

The roommates could feel something wasn't right as the atmosphere around Suzy was changing as she approached them. Suddenly the girls did what they never thought they would do in their life. They stepped back sensing for the first time a primal fear to be close to her.

"I know that you cast the transfer spell on me as you like" Suzy went on speaking as she kept walking "Now it's punishment time." she said, cracking her knuckles.

" And how are you going to punish us?" Violet snorted. "We are three and you just one"

"True, but before the day ends, I will have three things from each of you and you won't retain none. First, I'll get back the traits you stole from me. I want to get back my sight" Suzy said.

"Auch! my eyes!!" Violet shrieked suddenly. "Oh my... My perfect vision is gone" she said blinking her eyes as she saw everything around her all blurred. "My glasses. I need my glasses"

While Violet suffers from her vision loss, Suzy enjoys seeing things clearly again.specially her rival's embarrassed face very vividly. "And now that I see your face, it's time that we settle once and for all who is the smarter one and how better way that give that brains of your a new home"

"You'd got your sight back because we took your traits without your approval. I see it now. So if you use the spell to take my brains without my permission I will just get it back" Violet snored.

"Oh no. Your punishment is not losing what you took from me. It means giving more than you have taken to make amends. Isn't it common sense? And what a better way to pay for your crimes than taking what you treasure the most " Suzy said, making Violet shivered in fear.

"What?!! Can you do that?!!" Angela and Christen screamed simultaneously.

"No! No-o!! This is absurd!! She is bluffing" Violet said, trying to regain her composure.

"On the contrary, dear friend. From now on, you won't be able to get good grades unless you study really, really hard. You won't ever look down on a friend who got lower grades than you because you will be the one at the bottom. Now, say goodbye to your perfect score..." Suzy said as she placed her hands over Violet's head. "... as I take all your intelligence for myself"

Violet screamed in pain as she felt herself getting dumber and dumber. Her mental speed was decreasing. She found herself confused as to what was going on. She knew she was scared before, but now it didn't bother her much, she felt her head being filled with thick fog.

Meantime Suzy could feel Violet's IQ points being added to her own. She felt herself getting smarter by the second. By the time she withdrew her hands from Violet, the vacant stare in her eyes indicated she had been reduced to a glorified bimbo. Her head was completely empty.

"You were very smart Violet, but now, all your intelligence is mine to keep" Suzy said while tapping her head. "And now, it's time your turn Angela" she said as Angela's face turned pale. "I was thin because I watch what I eat. You could have done the same, but instead you dumped all your tummy fat on me. Were you trying to make me look like an E.T?" Suzy said in anger.

"I'm so sorry. Please, I will do anything. Don't punish me" Angela said in fear.

"I'm sorry too, because I have to show you what happens when you mess with other people without considering the consequences. First, take your tummy fat back again and in compensation, I will take your great beauty, with it, boys won't be able to resist me!!!" Suzy said.

Angela screamed as she felt her belly fat growing back on her. Then, she felt her face itching terribly. Seeing how Christen's eyes were looking at her in horror, she imagined the worst.

At the same time, Suzy moaned as her tummy was shrinking and her face tingled in a pleasant way. Knowing this will happen, Suzy prepared a mirror to see how her face was getting more and more appealing. Her lips got fuller, her nose smaller, her eyes hypnotic.

"Oh wow. Thanks for your beauty Angela. It suits me well" Suzy said admiring her reflection. While she had become irresistible, Angela was crying. The shattered screen on Angela's phone indicated she must have seen how she looked now. "Why are you crying? You always said that inner beauty is what matters? Well, enjoy it as it is the one beauty you have left” Suzy mocked.

“I look horrible. My life is over” Angela sobbed. Without her beauty, she was nothing.

“And finally, but not least it’s time I get back my breasts” Suzy said looking at Christen. “I guess that by now you must imagine what I would like you to donate to me. Right?” Suzy said.

“This was your plan all alone, wasn’t it? You left that spell for us to find it!!” Christen said..

“Things might be as you described, but it wasn’t me the one putting frogs in other girls’ drawers to mess with their underwear” Suzy said. “Besides, wasn’t you the one who wanted to cast the spell on another girl to steal her body shape? If you wouldn’t have stolen from me or messed with my stuff, this wouldn’t have happened. You have no standing ground. This is all your fault”.

“You will regret messing with me. I will show you how strong a gymnast can be” Christen said.

“Oh no. You won’t” Suzy smiled as Christen suddenly got paralyzed. “You see, this spell protects me from people trying to hurt me. That way I can punish them without any problem” she grinned seeing how Christen screamed like a banshee trying her best to move but still couldn’t do it. “But I won’t deny you are one of the top gymnasts this university has due to your athletic ability. Once I take it for myself, I will be able to achieve results even faster” Suzy laughed.

“No! Please, forgive me!! Without it, I won’t be able to compete. I will lose my scholarship!!” Christen begged, realizing her life and her whole future were at the stake.

“That’s none of my business!! You will have to practice harder and from the beginning if you want to remain on the gymnastics team, because your athletic ability is now MINE!” Suzy yelled.

Suzy moaned in pleasure as she felt her body lighter, energized. She grinned, sensing she could do any athletic action with ease if she proposed. To prove her point, she decided to do some tumbling routines. Suzy laughed as she performed stunts like backflips, handsprings, somersaults and tucks like if they were not hard at all. “What a wonderful feeling!! I feel I can win the Olympics!!” she laughed, noticing Christen was finally able to move.

“No. No. My body feels all wrong” Christen cried as she felt her body a lot heavier. It was visible her movements weren’t as graceful as before. They looked quite clumsy and when she tried to do a handspring, she ended up falling on the floor quite hard.

“Oh no! You won’t be able to do gymnastics for a while. I bet it feels awful to get robbed of your precious skill, ah?” Suzy teased, making Christen sob as she tried to do a simple backflip but failed miserably. “Hahahaha! Keep trying. Perhaps in ten years you will be on my level” Suzy laughed out loud. The defeat on her roommates’ face made this the happiest day of her life. Still, the night was young. “Now, now, why the long faces? Your punishment hasn’t ended yet”

“What? What else are you going to steal from us?” Angela said in anger revealing how her face had ended. It wasn’t ugly, but looked blunt. Nothing extraordinary. A face easy to forget.

“Well, for you dear Angela, I’m tired of people looking down on me. Being petite isn’t as glamorous as people think. The lolita look doesn't work for me, so what about if we trade heights? I want your stature Angela. Make me taller to be a model!" Suzy said delightedly.

Angela cried as her 5'5" tall frame was quickly reduced and compacted to 5'1". She watched in horror at how everything grew around her, but Suzy grew even more as she fed on her height. Soon, Angela got so small that her clothes hung loose on her shrunken body, while Suzy's clothing was getting extremely tight on her growing body, as if she was dressed in kid clothes.

"And you Christen. It will be a waste if your fit body gets all flabby without your athletic skill, so I will follow your advice and I will like to have your workout body shape" Suzy laughed as she flexed her arms and felt her muscles tensing and firming up. She enjoyed how strong her body was feeling. "Look at this body. Years of training without even sweating". Then, she gasped as she felt her stretched jeans ripping off as her buttcheeks bulged out. "Oh my... your squats are making my ass even bigger. Hahaha. This is what I call a hell of a workout" she grinned as her butt was swelling massively. Suzy felt incredible as she was hulking out her small outfit.

Christen fitness's condition was quietly removed from her leaving her thin and skinny. Without the body fat she burned, she ended mostly like a stick. Her hard muscles reverted to nothing.

"Of course, let's not forget about our bimbo Violet. While I agree your large breasts fit your state of mind, I can give them a better use" Suzy said, looking into the vacant stare of Violet's face. "So, let me take your big boobs from you Violet. They are such a heavy burden for you anyway"

Violet didn't know what was happening, but she looked down confused as her ample chest was quickly diminishing. Like deflating balloons, her bust collapsed. "Boobies gone?" Violet babbled.

"Ohoh...oh. Not gone Violet. They are just coming my way" Suzy moaned as felt her breasts tingling. Under the envious looks of her roommates, Suzy gasped as her inflating boobs started to overflow her B-cup bra. Her breathing was short and her arousal was clear in her voice. When the pressure proved to be too much, Suzy lifted her too small shirt and with a pull of her strong muscles, she ripped off her bra letting her bullies get a good look at her bare swelling tits.

"And voila. Look how big my boobs are getting!! Isn't it cool??" Suzy laughed as her tits were getting heavier and heavier until finally their growth stopped. Drunken with delight, Suzy touched her own boobs. They had gotten so big, she wasn't able to contain them with one hand.

Without saying a word, Suzy walked toward Violet's drawer and grabbed one of her bras. "Hope you don't mind, I borrowed one of yours. Mine are just too small and yours... well, it's not like you have a need for them anymore" She grinned as she tried the garment on herself. Her grin became even wider as she barely could hook the bra on her. "It seems your big bra is just too small for my ripped melons" Suzy laughed as her breasts were definitely above D's. Having taken that much from Violet, it was no surprise she ended up with a larger rack. "It seems the spell gave me Violet's Ds above my Bs. That will make me an E at least. Ahahaha!!!" she laughed, thrusting forward her prominent chest while Violet looked as flat as a board.

"Well, it was fun, girls, but I need to go" Suzy said, grabbing a rolling suitcase. "Having your attributes will let me start a better life. It's time I find what this new body of mine can do" she said, throwing all her clothes stuck in the suitcase onto Angela's bed. Then, Suzy removed her torn jeans and opened Angela's closet. "Since now I have your height, your clothes should fit me right?" she said to her diminished roommate. "I will take yours and you can have mine. Isn't that a fair trade" Suzy laughed as she picked one of Angela's favorite leggings and put them on. Thanks to her swollen posterior, the leggings look way hotter than they ever did on her Angela.

Once she got a nice shirt that showed off her wonderful cleavage, Suzy walked toward the door. Angela, Christen and Violet couldn't even keep eye contact with her anymore. "Ah! In case you planned to get back at me for taking your traits. Keep in mind what you lost for trying to steal from me. Imagine what will happen if you try to have revenge on me. Your punishment isn't over. I can take more of you if I want" Suzy lied. She knew she could only take two traits, but they didn't know that. The idea of losing more of themselves will keep them in line. The horror in their faces told Suzy they believed her threat. "Take care girls and thanks for your gifts. I will be sure to have fun with them" she smiled, blowing a kiss to her defeated bullies. Revenge was good.

As Suzy left the dorm, she wondered what she should do. She thought returning home was a good idea, after all a higher intelligence and an athletic ability were easy to hide. Her radical beauty improvement could be disguised as makeup tricks, but she took more from her bullies than she intended and now her changes will be hard to hide. Since she visited her parents last week, it will be impossible to explain how she grew 4 inches in such a short period of time, or how she got so incredibly fit, not even mentioning having her breasts tripled in size.

"No. I can't go home for now. My parents will be shocked to see me like this, but perhaps in a few months. Yeah, there are rare cases of late growth spurts that drastically change a young woman's body, so perhaps in 6 months or a year I can visit them again" she smiled feeling quite proud Violet's intelligence was already working in her favor. "But now, where do I go?"

Suzy didn't have any friend to ask for help, but suddenly the girl she least expected approached her as she walked out. It was Diana, and it didn't help that she had a crush on her.

"Um....Are you new here? I mean, I would have noticed a woman as hot and curvy as you around" Diana asked, noticing Suzy was dragging her rolling suitcase.

"Nah. Just a hard break up with my roommates" Suzy blushed after hearing Diana calling her hot. Since Diana wasn't close to her, it was logical Diana wouldn't recognize her and mistaken her for a new student. "But enough say that I won't return to this dorm. So, I need to find a hotel"

"If you need a place to stay, my apartment is nearby" Diana boldly offered.

Suzy couldn't believe one of the hottest girls in the campus was inviting her to her apartment. Now that she was beautiful and had bigger tits, she had finally stimulated Diana's curiosity.

"Sure. If it's not a problem" Suzy giggled feeling like she had butterflies in her stomach.

"Not at all. By the way, you had a fine taste in clothing. They look very good on you. I wish I could have a fit body like yours. What kind of exercise do you do? Perhaps you have a secret method to share with me... among other things?" Diana seductively asked as she led the way.

Feeling she could have a chance with Diana, Suzy smiled. "Perhaps if you are good enough...."

Part 4

"Diana, you deceived me" Suzy said, quite pissed as she took the magic paper with the transfer spell from Diana's hand. "You said you will let your friend know about the spell so you could take her love making skill and give me blind blowing orgasms, but instead you use it to steal my teeth. What's wrong with you? I thought you like me"

"Ah, Suzy, please forgive me. It was an innocent mistake, just a mistake, please." Diana said as she smiled with the sparkling straight teeth Suzy had kept in perfect condition all her life.

It has been 3 days since Suzy left the dorms and moved to live with Diana. During that time, Suzy embraced that lesbian side of her she wasn't sure about. She definitely like boys and haven't stop thinking about finding one to have sex with, but Diana was incredible. She made her discover things about her own body she didn't know about. Her sexual experience was impressive, so if she got even more, sex would have been terrific. That was why she agreed to tell her about the spell, but deep down she hoped she wouldn't use it on herself.

One of the things Suzy learned after sleeping with Diana, was that she had crooked teeth. Diana hid them by using a special paint to make them quite white; still, there was nothing she could do to cover the fact her teeth were straight. When Suzy asked her why she didn't get them fixed, Diana mentioned it cost a lot of money and time. Then, to Suzy's surprise, while she was making breakfast for both of them the morning she revealed the truth about the magic spell and its power, she felt her teeth being twisted and distorted. It was really uncomfortable.

"A mistake, my ass!" Suzy said in anger. "How could you make a mistake even after telling you this spell could only be casted once in a lifetime? No. You deceived me and cast it on me in secret! That is what hurts me the most. I thought we had something special, but I see we didn't"

"Ah, Suzy, please forgive me... pretty please!!!" Diana said, batting her eyes in innocence. "I promise to make you feel very good" Diana cooed while rubbing her breasts on Suzy's arm.

"Shut up you fucking liar. I said clearly enough that you can be punished by the victim if the spell was used without consent!!" Suzy said walking away from Diana. "And I will definitely make you pay for breaking my heart. "First, I want my teeth back" Suzy gritted and a pleasant, creaking sound came out from her mouth. Since her lips were opened, Suzy let Diana catch the sight of her teeth getting whiter and shifted into a straight position. She then passed her tongue over them just to confirm they were back to the way they were supposed to be.

"Oh come on! Don't be like that Suzy, I was just hoping to have some make-up sex so you could let me keep your teeth a bit longer" Diana's pouted.

"You are so stupid, for having use your only unique time on the spell to cross me. You used me, so I think it's fair I use you too. You are as busty as me, so a good punishment should be taking your tits... no, even better, I will take all your womanly curves from you. That should teach you a lesson" Suzy grinned. "But that won't be all. I will take your sexual skills too" she said in rage.

Diana cried in pain as she felt a large piece of her personality and knowledge being ripped off from her very core. The pain intensified as her body began to lose any trace of maturity it had. Her large breasts deflated, her wide hips became non existing and her sculpted ass became a distant memory. "No. Please no. I'm sorry. I'm so sorry" Diana got on her knees and cried.

"You weren't kidding when you said you haven't used your full sex knowledge on me!" Suzy grinned as Diana's vast sexual experience flew into her brain. "Oh fuck! I will take it all. All your tricks and masteries" she said, so caught up in absorbing Diana's most valious skills that she missed the stretching sound of her clothes as her curves simply exploded. Diana has been very voluptuous to the point to equal Suzy's curves after having taken Violet's tits and she has been inflated by Christen's training. Her impressive hourglass became even more remarkable as it merged the pronounced curves of two women. "There! All that you were is mine now. Get out!!!"

"But... this is my apartment" Diana said quite shily grabbing her shorts as without her hips and ass, they fell to the ground. Her tight shirt stuck loose on her flat chest.

"I said get out! Or do you want me to take your ability to orgasm" Suzy threatened her.

Without a word and holding her loose clothes, Diana left the apartment leaving Suzy crying.

"I thought you would be different Diana. But as I expected, you betrayed me and casted the spell on me. I was so naive believing you had found someone to use the spell with. Who gives their best attribute to others for nothing? I was a fool for believing you, but now, everything I lust about you will be part of me forever". Suzy touched her forehead sensing Diana's donation inside her mind. "At least, I'm back on track to my original plan and still I haven't used the spell"

Being careful not to stretch her clothes too much as she removed them, Suzy stooskildd naked in front of the mirror Diana kept in her bedroom. She looked at her face and body shape and she couldn't recognize herself in the mirror. Personality and skills were useful, but she wanted to improve her appearance and Diana's betrayal surely gave her an amazing opportunity.

Her once small and petite body now was above the average. Her big boobs looked insanely huge on her. But even though she had combined Diana's E-cups breasts with her equally big pair, she didn't feel she had grown 5 cups to fill a J-cup. "These feel more like an H-cup" Suzy said, cupping her large mammaries. "It seems large breasts will add less and less to my jutting profile the bigger it gets. I wonder how many women I will have to drain to get satisfied, because I want my tits so big that I can put my nipple in my own mouth and suck it" she grinned wanting to have those enormous breasts already. She has the ability to get those and she could see her walking around owning a heavy set of milkers that eyes couldn't avoid being drawn into

Happy with her thoughts, Suzy watched in joy the rest of her body. Her long and trim body shape were fine additions as well her stop-traffic booty. Of course, she wanted to be tall, very tall. She wanted to be so tall that people would be below her breasts. To achieve that, she will need a lot of people to take height from too. Fortunately, she was smart enough to find a way.

Having Angela's beauty certainly put her one step closer to her vision of an Elite-Model allure, but her new goal was to possess an absolute and overwhelming beauty. She imagined many beautiful girls will try to steal her well developed curves and if they do, she could punish them

After packing her things and leaving Diana's apartment, Suzy went back into the streets. She needed money right away so she chose the easiest way to make it. Offer the pleasures her voluptuous body could bring to me. A week ago, she wouldn't have imagined doing something like that in a million years, but at the moment, the thought didn't even bother her. She had changed too much and to keep changing, she needed the money and will do anything to get it.

As she waited in the corner of a street for a stranger to pick her up, Suzy felt a bit ashamed as without realizing she was standing across the street of Mrs. Wiley shop. Embarrassment filled her face as she imagined how disappointed Mrs. Wiley would be that she was selling herself like that. Fortunately, luck was on her side as Suzy noticed a banner over the door. Using her great vision, she read Mrs. Wiley had to make a sudden trip, so the shop will be closed for a few days.

Just then, a very expensive convertible stopped in front of her. The man seems in her early 30s, but he definitely gave off a rich vibe. "Hey babe. Is that body of yours for sale?" he asked.

"It depends on what you want to do. I was kicked out of my apartment so I need money fast" Suzy didn't entirely lied "If I have the means, I can provide the entertainment" she said, caressing her breasts and making her best innocent pose. She just hoped he caught the bait.

"Damn. You have some porn star tits there. I will be honest with you girl. I like it rough, but if you can stand it, I can make it worth it. How $1000s sound like for two hours of sex" he offered with a classic rich smile. "If you do a good job, I may require your company again"

"Uhm... What about $1500? This is my first time, so you will be taking my virginity away" she said looking at him with the most lustful eyes as she bit her lower lip faking desire quite good.

"A virgin? If that is true, I will give you $2000. Hope in babe. You sexy body is making me rock hard" the man said and Suzy happily obeyed. "I have a nice private place nobody will bother us"

Suzy tossed her suitcase in the back as she sat next to the man. She was indeed a virgin, and while she felt sad her virginity was sold like an object, she quickly dismissed the feeling. Having $2000 will help her a lot, so it was the most logical decision to accept the deal. Fortunately, the man didn't look so bad. Looking at him closer, he did seem like a man that could turn her own. She didn't notice it at first to hide her nerves, but the man was quite tall and very muscular. Suzy really liked that. "My name is Suzy by the way. Do you mind if I get an early taste?" she said as she lowered herself to the man's lap and started to rub his hard cock. She couldn't avoid smiling as she felt how big and thick it felt on her hand.

"Wow girl. I'm Jack, and you are wild" he jumped as Suzy took out his penis and started sucking it. "Holly shit! I give you an extra $100 if you let me cum in your mouth" he said and Suzy's reply was to suck him harder. "Oh yes. We are going to have so much fun" he said, blowing his load.

Once the two of them were alone in his room, Jack didn't waste time to pay Suzy's attention, with his own. Suzy moaned and panted as Jack proved to be even more skilful than Diana ever was. He brought an orgasm after orgasm and when Suzy thought he couldn't take it anymore, Jack ditched his pants to reveal the monster cock she had been sucking all the way there.

As he promised, Jack was hard on Suzy. For her first time, Suzy cried in pain as her virginity was taken away. Then, the pain turned into pleasure as Jack filled her up more than she imagined a man could do. She moaned so loud and screamed his name like a total whore. She never experienced hard sex, and now she felt she wouldn't be able to live without it.

"I told you, you will like it. Do you like how my big fat cock stretches your prude pussy" Jack said as he rammed with all his might into Suzy giving her so much pleasure that numbed what should be quite a painful experience for her first experience.

"Oh yes. I love how you are destroying my sex. Oh fuck!! Give it all to me Jack. I want you to fuck me hard and nasty. Don't hold yourself. Make you bitch!" Suzy screamed as she orgasmed once more. She felt her body made of jello as she had lost count how many times she came.

"Don't worry Suzy. Fun hasn't even started yet" Jack grinned as he slapped Suzy hard, knocking her out. "Sleep well for a bit. I need you to be ready for the next part" he grinned.

Suzy woke up as she felt cold water being splashed over her face. "What the..." she said as she found herself being tied to the bed. Her arms and legs were held at the corners of the bed.

"Hello Suzy. Sorry for the rude wake up call, but I'm paying you for two hours, so I don't want to miss any minute of it more than necessary" Jack said. "Don't worry, I won't hurt you and yes I'm still going to pay you the money we agreed, but like I said, I like rough sex but not all women are up for this kind of domination. Hope you can stand it Suzy. I have high hopes for you" he said

Jack sat on top of Suzy's legs and stretched his hands slides over her belly. For Suzy, it felt like worms wriggle on her body. All the pleasure she had felt, quickly was turning into fear and all she could think was how she could escape this situation. She put her higher intellect to work.

Jack's hand quickly moved and started to grope her massive breasts. "You have such a huge tits Suzy. Women as busty as you and natural are hard to find. Believe me. I have tried" he said as he lowered her face and started to suck her nipples. He bit them not hard to damage them, but strong enough to make her hurt badly. "If you could have been lactating, you will be perfect"

The more Jack moved toward her face, the more Suzy wanted to get free. Seeing no other choice, she decided to use the only advantage she had. It was risky but she only hoped Jack could believe in magic, at least a little to bargain her freedom.

"Please Jack. You are creeping me out, so I call off our deal. I know I have disappointed you, but I can make it up to you in another way. I didn't want to tell you this, but I will give you something even more valuable than my body. Since you have money, perhaps you can use it better than me" Suzy said, hoping he will take the bait. "Search in my bag for a scroll"

Curious, Jack did what was told. "What is this?" he said, taking out the rolled paper piece.

"It is a magic scroll. Even though it requires complicated conditions to work, I used it to get this sexy body. It gave me the attributes I always wanted. You can do the same" Suzy offered.

"What? Abiha blah~ blah~ 'Abiha Katanahacha I want something from someone' I just have to say this for it to work?" Jack read, "Well, Abiha Katanahacha I want all Darren's height" he said.

Hearing his desire brought hope to Suzy. "Please, read the instructions again. The spell only works on people that know about the spell. You need to inform him about the spell before using it" Suzy said "Also, if you want something, you need the permission from that person, otherwise you will be punished and you can cast this spell only once in a lifetime" Suzy said.

"Well, then this is no use for me. Who knows about this spell? You?" Jack asked and Suzy nodded. "But you are shorter than me. This won't work" he said, tossing the paper aside.

Suzy's fear rose so she needed to act quickly. "No. You can ask for part of my size" she said. She never tried taking a piece of it, but the spell was designed to share what others have plenty, so it should work for a partial transfer. She just hoped she was correct. "But if you do, I will have to punish you" she grinned. "And believe me, you won't like me when I punish people"

"Oh... I get it" Jack said, picking back the paper while looking at Suzy. "You little sneaky bitch. You want to trick me to use the spell on you, so you can punish me? Is this a kind of dominatrix crap? Well if you think you can punish me. Come on, go ahead. Abiha Katanahacha I want a whole foot of height from Suzy!" he said, deciding to play along, but gasped as his body tingled.

Jack groaned as he started to grow in height. "Oh my... It works!!" he gasped seeing how everything around him was getting smaller. He quickly moved to the full size mirror he had to see himself getting bigger. He flexed a bit to show his muscles and laughed as he was quickly outgrowing the mirror frame. "I'm getting so fucking big that I will need a bigger mirror. Pity I didn't try this spell with my clothes on. I would have loved to see me hulking out from them" he laughed. By the time he stopped growing, he passed from being 5'7" to 6'4". "This is incredible, but I asked for a foot in height. Why am I not 6' 9" tall?" he asked, looking at his reflection.

"Because you asked for a foot of my height. Since I'm smaller than you, you got the mass proportionate to that size" Suzy explained hoping he will keep his eyes on the mirror.

"Oh Suzy. If you think I was going hard on you, you don't know what it's up for you now. You are going to scream my name so loud. I will break you in half with this" he said, grabbing his erect penis which due to his increase in height had become even bigger and thicker than before.

"This is one fortunate side effect I haven't considered," Suzy said, biting her lips. "Crap. You did a good number on me. I look like a kid next to you" she said as she stood next to him in the mirror. Her height had been reduced to 4'5", just below his chest.

"But? How?" Jack muttered as he looked at the bed. The binding he put on Suzy was still there. He realized she had shrunk small enough to slip off from them.

"Now dear Jack, hope you are ready for your punishment, because you just activated my trap card!!" Suzy shouted for joy as her gamble succeeded.

"What, Wh.... you aren't serious?" Jack said composing. He used his new height to loom over Suzy. Then, he tensed his muscles just to show he wasn't afraid. "I told you, if someone is going to do punishments here, it will be me" he said. "Pity your tits shrunk too, still they are plenty for me to play" he said, amazed as his bigger hand couldn't fully get a hold on Suzy's breast.

"You think you can use your height and muscles to intimate me? If you only knew how my punishment works, you wouldn't look so confident" she grinned even though Jack was groping a bit hard on her breasts. "So, why don't I show you. Even though I like men with big muscles, you are using them to hurt me in a way I don't appreciate, so I will take them. I want all the hard muscle you have built in your life!" Suzy said with mischief

"What?" Jack gasped in shock. Since he was naked, he noticed all his muscles were quickly melting in his skin. His abs, biceps, everything was going away. He gasped as he couldn't remember how long it had been since he was such a weakling. Even in his teens he was buffed.

But as Jack felt disconcerted about his loss, Suzy felt an extreme ecstasy. She felt Jack's lifetime hard workouts flew in her body. She felt how the muscles she took from Christen filled out with even more power. This wasn't the strength of a young woman, but the one of a grown up man. Her muscles pulsated and expanded, getting bigger and harder. Even though she wasn't even flexing, the size of her bulging muscles was something incredible. "What an incredible feeling. My muscles are trying to keep up with your strength. It's overflowing me"

"What the fuck is this?" Jack said afraid as Suzy was becoming something he wouldn't have imagined seeing in his wildest nightmares. Her petite frame was now hosting muscles way bigger for it, giving her the a bizarre look of a miniaturized bodybuilder

"It's punishment. I took your precious muscles and with it your strength. Now you're weaker than me." Suzy said grabbing both of Jack's arms to pull him down toward her.

Jack tried to resist but found his thin arms barely had any strength on them, so he bent down against his will. "I'm not weak. You will regret this" Jack said, pulling his arms to get free.

"Oh my... you are really trying to get away, don't you?" Suzy said amused as Jack was groaning and moving frantically but couldn't even budge an inch from her iron grip. "I mean, I have no problem holding your struggles, so I thought you were just pulsating me, but I can see the effort you're putting into it. Oh my... you are sweating. This is so hot. I have made you such a weakling" Suzy laughed. "Seeing your puny efforts makes me feel so powerful. Knowing I can do anything I want to you and you won't be able to fight me is so overwhelming" she laughed.

"What...What are you doing? Let me go stupid bitch!" Jack fought with all his might, but he felt a strong pull on his arms. Suddenly, the next thing he felt was his body crashing on the bed

"This is so awesome. I can't believe how strong I'm" Suzy laughed as she flexed her arms, noticing her bulging biceps. "I just tossed you across the room like you were a rag doll. This is getting me so wet" Suzy said while using one of her hands to feel her pussy. Her sex had gotten quite moist during her muscular transformation. Now, having tasted the full power she possessed was enough to get her dripping wet. "Oh yes. I'm ready for you big guy" Suzy said.

"No. No. Get away from me" Jack tried to flee away, but Suzy held her over the bed without problem just by sitting above him. Most of her weight was now solid muscle and Jack found himself pinned down and having difficulty breathing. "No. I won't submit to you" he yelled.

"Oh please. Don't do it. I will enjoy breaking you" Suzy smiled as she tied him to the bed as he did to her. "I must say, I almost took the height you stole from me back first, but I didn't want to lose the opportunity to have such a beast between my legs. Now that I'm smaller and it's bigger, this could be a once in a life chance. So, enjoy it while you can. I'm sure I will" Suzy said as she started to caress and kiss Jack penis using every bit of skill she got from Diana.

Jack felt betrayed by his penis, as it steadily started to become longer and thicker regardless of his will. He couldn't move easily as Suzy felt like a ton seated over his legs.

"O.K. Well done. And now, let's see how this big bad boy feels" Suzy said as she positioned her sex above Jack's erection. Then, she dropped all her weight into it making both of them screamed of pleasure. His huge penis got inserted so fast that she had a powerful orgasm.

At first, she moved her waist slowly while sitting him to avoid him escaping but as her stimulation kept adding up, she lowered her torso smashing her huge tits against Jack's chest. Then, she grinded her pussy against his shaft and did a series of vigorous thrusts to pull in and out his whole length. Jack gave up and didn't resist her anymore, focusing on his own pleasure.

"Hmmm..." Suzy accelerates her waist move instinctually. "My orgasm is coming. It will be hu..."

"UAAAAA...!!" Jack moaned as he ejaculated. He convulsed several times as he never experienced such a turn on. Suzy was so tight and her breasts felt so good on him, he couldn't hold himself any longer and empty everything he had inside of her.

Suzy got into total shock. She could feel his semen filling her insides as his mighty penis shrunk rapidly. She lifted her butt and saw his flaccid penis slipped out of her pussy leeting fall from it a mixed sticky secretion of his and her sex fluids. Angered, Suzy was about to slap Jack's cheek when she recalled her strength. She could have taken a few of his teeth if not just break his jaw, so she took a deep breath and calmed down. "Why did you do that? I was so close" she said.

"I'm sorry. I couldn't hold myself. It was because... you were so damn good?" he said with a nervous smile. He saw how she had stopped her hand before she slapped him and for a moment he thought he was done. If he wanted to go out alive, he knew he had to get into her good side. Fortunately she smiled at him, making him sigh in relief.

"Flattery will get you anywhere" Suzy said as she sat on his chest. "Alright, I will give you one more chance, but while it feels good to have such a big penis inside me, I don't like you being so much taller than me. So, I take back my feet of height" Suzy said as she felt herself growing.

Jack gasped as Suzy got even heavier on top of him. His diminished body was resulting in a diminished endurance, so it was getting harder for him to breathe. The more he shrunk, the more she grew, making the pressure grow exponentially until it became painfully unbearable.

"Oops! Sorry!" Suzy giggled as he saw Jack's face returning to its normal color as she shifted her weight over her legs. "It will be bad if I end breaking your ribs before achieving my orgasm"

Jack didn't know if she was joking or not at this point. Her words sound like a dangerous premonition of what she may do to him after she gets what she wants. Still, he couldn't avoid feeling aroused by her lustful moans as she was growing. Her enormous breasts returned to their former glory as she rose above him. Fortunately, her menacing muscles started spreading across her enlarging frame, but while they didn't look so intimidating, he was no fool to doubt they hadn't lost an ounce of their brute force. A force he knew well before she took it for herself.

"Uhhmm.. All this growing up is making me very horny. Let's try this again, shall we?" Suzy said glad to see her little show gave Jack a massive hard on. She wasted no time and took it all in.

Blinded in pleasure, Suzy and Jack moaned at the same time. Jack's penis slides into Suzy's pussy very naturally now. All the previous stretching had paid off and now she was taking all his length with relative ease. Again, she felt her libido rising and her orgasm building, but this time, she saw Jack's face indicating he was about to come first again. "Oh no. You won't" she said.

Jack screamed with distorted features as Suzy's pussy rippled with powerful muscular contractions. She was using his stolen strength to hold him on the agonizing edge of his orgasm milking him for all his worth. "How are you doing this? You said you were a virgin" he groaned.

"I have a very good teacher" Suzy laughed, glad that Diana's skills included how to control a man's orgasm. She enjoyed how Jack plighted her for release, but she taunted by making him unable to do it. As his arousal built higher, her own did it as well. Finally, she undone his lock on him and both came in the most mind blowing orgasm either of them had ever had.

Suzy collapsed on top of Jack, surprised how much she had enjoyed not only sex, but the fact that she had dominated completely. She had discovered a desire she didn't know she had, and she was more than eager to explore it more. Looking at Jack, who had completely passed out from the experience, Suzy felt satisfied that her first time was with him. She had always wanted to have sex with a handsome guy who could make everyone feel jealous. Of course, that was the old Susy.

Now that she had gotten drunk in pleasure and power completely, there was no way she could stick to one man. Jack may have been his first, but certainly he won't be her last. She just hoped the next ones will be quite strong. A girl could always use more muscle and strength.

Part 5

"600 lbs?!! That is twice your bodyweight!!" Ginger exclaimed in total awe as she saw Suzy lift the heavy weight bar with some effort but not real strain. It was like she was trying to measure how strong she was. "I can't believe it. I mean, I have seen you have managed to grow stronger and more muscular week after week for the last month, but you never got this strong this fast before. Just last week you were struggling to lift 500 lb but now, danm" she said.

"Yeah, Lucky for me there was an amazon cosplay convention during the weekend. That gave me the kick I needed" Suzy said, feeling her biceps. She smiled feeling how sore her muscle felt after having bench-pressed 40 sets. "I can already feel my muscles getting harder from the exercise. I guess I'm going to need heavier weights to build bigger muscles" Suzy grinned

"If you are interested, I may have let you borrow some of my special weights," Hank said as he stood next to Suzy's bench. "I just moved from the 650 lbs bar to the 700 lbs ones" he said.

Suzy looked hungry for a moment at Hank. He stood at 6'1" and weighed more than 350 lbs, which most of it was pure muscle since he was a professional bodybuilder.

"I may take your offer on that... shorty" Suzy giggled as she stood up from the bench and looked in weight how the tallest man in the gym couldn't even reach her chin. "These babies need a lot of love to grow big and strong" she said, flexing her biceps and proud they were almost as big as some professional bodybuilders.

"If you try my way, in a few months you will get them as big as mine" he said flexing his enormous biceps making Ginger whistled in appreciation. "Think about it" he said, walking away.

Suzy and Ginger licked and bit their lips watching the hulking form of Hank getting away. And while both women had the same reaction, she knew hers was different from Ginger. It was obvious Ginger lusted Hank for his muscle, but she lusted the muscle that Hank's had.

The day Suzy met Jack was enlightening. She not only discovered that growing muscles brought pleasure, but that it was beyond any other pleasure she had felt. Even Jack wasn't too tall for a man, stripping him of almost 30 lbs of muscle felt really good, but then, she got another 40 lbs more when she paid him an eye for an eye when she took a whole foot of height from him. She was delighted that he ended 6'5" and inch taller than he was. Since he had been taller than her to start with, she managed to milk more mass out of him making herself an amazon.

'When I got into this gym, I imagined becoming more muscular than Arnold Schwarzeneger, but building muscles is too slow' Suzy thought as during a whole month after her encounter with Jack, she had been working out, trying to build muscles by exercising without magic. But the results were too slow for her taste. 'Perhaps your method works Hank, but I know a way to build muscle instantly,' Suzy thought, feeling hungry and greedy for some big muscles. She pressed her breasts together just to feel the magic scroll tucked between them. 'If taking Jack's muscles felt that good, drinking Hank's muscles, which are 4 times bigger than his, would be overwhelming. Still, you have come quite handy with my casual sex encounters' Suzy thought recalling how the scroll had been the one responsible of her amazing muscular growth the past month.

After treating Jack with stealing more from him besides his height and muscles, he gave her his credit card and the promised money for her services. With his money, she rented an apartment and bought some clothes to fit her huge body. With the problem of money solved, Suzy didn't have to sell her body, but due her experience with Jack, she had become addict to sex. Sadly, she found out that most men weren't attracted to women taller and stronger than them.

After a month of not having a man to have sex, Suzy started to use her size and muscle as advantage to get the sex she needed it. She ended up raping a few young men, which in desperation to get revenge on her, they decided to try the spell Suzy had 'casually' mentioned having used to get so powerful. She did tell them knowing they would use it on her to get even.

Using that method, Suzy managed to have sex and get the muscle and the potential to build muscles from at least two men each weekend. She didn't want to risk facing a man she couldn't handle, so taking a normal man gave her only around 5 lbs of muscle allowing her to add at least 10 lbs per weekend. With that, for the last 3 weeks she went from weighing 210 lbs to 240 lb, but since she had the combined muscle build potential of 6 men, she managed to build 20 lbs more of muscle on her own. That was until last weekend when a young strong man portrayed a barbarian. He had very workout muscles and since she was already stronger than him, she took the chance. Everything worked perfectly and she obtained from him almost 40 lbs of muscle pushing her weight to 300 lbs. "Just wait a bit more Hank. I'm going to get so big, that you will want to steal my muscles for sure" Suzy giggled, knowing it won't long for it to happen.

"It will be a pity you won't show him. He leaves the gym next week. I'm going to miss looking at his hard muscular body everyday" Ginger said as she guided Suzy to another machine to exercise. "Still, it's rewarding to see how your hard work as a trainer works on people" she said.

"Hank is leaving!" Suzy said as she almost dropped the two 250 lbs dumbbells she was holding.

"Shhhh! It's a secret. As his trainer and owner of this gym, he told me he was moving to another gym that has better facilities. He wants to get into bodybuilding competitions" Ginger sighed.

"That is why I'm organizing a secret party tonight for special members only" Ginger whispered.

"A party you say?" Suzy asked, having her bright mind already working the possibilities. If Hank will be leaving soon, her plan to have him steal her strength won't work. 'A party sounds like the perfect opportunity to try plan B' Suzy thought. Plan B required gathering a lot of people in one place and a spark to ignite the fire. "I think it's time that I trust you a little secret of mine" Suzy said, embracing her trainer. "If you want to seduce Hank, you may want what I have right here" Suzy whispered in her ear as she pulled the magic scroll from between her breasts.

A few hours later, the party was a great success. Most of the people in the gym were already drunk as the female gym promoters were in charge of distributing the alcohol among the members. They were mostly leading the whole gathering as Ginger wasn't around, but she informed them she had a huge surprise and must keep the members entertained until she was ready. When the clock marked the 10:00 on, the promoters gathered people for the big reveal.

"Good night ladies and gentleman" Ginger's voice was herded through the gym speakers. "Tonight we gather to say goodbye to one of our finest members. Hank, step forward" she said.

Hank walked toward the management office where the lights were pointing. People clapped and roared in approval. "OK Ginger. What kind of surprise have you prepared for us" Hanks asked.

"Something very special. Ta da!!!" Ginger announced as she stepped out of the office pushing a wheelchair with what should be a tall woman tied up, blindfolded, and with cotton blocking her ears. With all of that on her, it was difficult to see her face, but she seemed to be unconscious.

"What the hell?" What is the meaning of this? Have you kidnapped a woman?" Hank asked.

"You don't recognize Suzy, Hank? She would be offended if she was conscious" Ginger said.

"Suzy? This woman can't be her. Suzy has big..." Hank didn't say more for decency, but his hands drew a long curve over his chest to emphasize what he was trying to say.

"Oh! You mean these!?" Ginger said moving from behind the wheelchair to shock at all people with an enormous pair of breasts attached to her chest. "They have a new owner" she giggled.

Since all people looked at her in disbelief, Ginger dug her fingers in her cleavage and pulled out the magic scroll. "Most of you must have been jealous of how good and sexy Suzy is, right? Well, she wasn't born like this. She used the magic spell on this scroll to take the traits of other women and even men to get the body she had. She offered to let me use it if I lure Hank into a trap so she could steal all your muscles" Ginger said as she handed the scroll to Hank. "In exchange for my help. She assured me I could get what I wanted. Of course, she never imagined I wanted her big breasts, so once she explained to me how to use the spell, I drugged her and used the spell to steal her breasts" Ginger said, thrusting out her huge pumpkins.

"But here says a punishment will be given if the spell is used without an agreement" Hank said.

"That is precisely the reason why Suzy is blindfolded and has her ears covered. If she can't see and hear us, she can't punish us. And just to be sure, she is unconscious, so she won't know what happened to her" Ginger said. "I must say it was sad I couldn't see Suzy's reaction at the sight of her breasts getting flatter while mine inflated like balloons. It felt wonderful feeling my breasts getting heavier as Suzy's impressive rack merged with my own. You know I had some big ones before, but now, these puppies must be past the middle of the alphabet" she laughed.

"So, she wanted to take my muscles ah? Let's see how she likes to be the one losing all the hard work of her life. Abiha Katanahacha I want muscles from Suzy" Hank said.

Everyone present gasped as Suzy's muscles simply shrunk into nothing as Hank's body bulged out with the stolen muscularity. "Oh my... It works. The spell really works!!" Hank said, flexing his arm to admire how big his muscles had gotten.

"I must say Suzy's muscles looked so good on you" Ginger said, not able to hold herself and kiss Hank. "I really need to have you Hank. So, what about we let the other members have fun with Suzy while you and I get intimate with each other before you leave" Ginger said and Hank just grinned. "Dear members. You can get a chance which can change your life dramatically if fortune smiles upon you. Suzy has many attributes and all of them are yours to take. Have fun"

"I can't believe this. I don't want to steal anything from her" Jane said

"You don't need to take only. You can also give. What about those birthmarks you always complain your pregnancy left? Why not get rid of them?" Ginger suggested.

"Can I do that?" Jane wondered. After having her baby a few weeks ago, she was trying to recover her slim figure, but those marks didn't want to go. "Abiha Katanahacha I give my birthmarks to Suzy." Jane said, hoping it will become true.

To her joy, Jane lifted her shirt and watched how the marks around her abdomen vanished just to appear on Suzy's flabby belly since her once hard abs had gone to Hank.

"Hey, don't spoil the goods before we take them. "Abiha Katanahacha I want the small waist from Suzy!" Peggy said as her waist shrunk nicely.

"She may have no breasts, but her nipples are lovely. Breastfeeding has given such dark nipples and areolas. Abiha Katanahacha I want pinky nipple-areolas from Suzy!" Zilian said.

"Working out is bad for skin. Abiha Katanahacha I want a soft fair skin from Suzy!" Lain said.

"I only workout to get rid of my fat so.... Abiha Katanahacha I give my fat to Suzy!" Dorian said.

As the women gave their flaws and took her merits, Suzy changed into a freak. No breasts, a protruding belly, and ruined skin had made Suzy so an ugly woman that nobody wanted to see her, but still their greed was more and they kept using the spell to improve themselves.

Thinking it will be a huge loss not doing it, men's eyes ignited with desire as they used the spell.

"Abiha Katanahacha I want athletic skills from Suzy!" Chang said

"Abiha Katanahacha I want to exchange height with Suzy!" Kimly said

"Abiha Katanahacha I want....."

"Abiha Katanahacha I give...."

"Suzy....Suzy....Suzy..."

Voices calling for Suzy echoes down, just in time to let Ginger's screams of pleasure fill the room. Members had been so busy that they didn't noticed the two of them had been having sex right there. Ginger was riding Hank like a cowgirl bouncing her large tits for everyone to see. She screamed one more as another orgasm rocked her body and she felt tired on Hank's arms.

"Everybody done?" a mocking voice said.

As those words were heard, nobody spoke and only turned their heads to see the human-pig shape Suzy was left with. They sweated cold when they saw she had a grin on her face.

"Very well. Now it's time for your punishment!!" Suzy grinned as she shook off her ties. She had lost so much muscle and height that they didn't hold her anymore. She removed the blindfold and the cotton on her ears, which seemed not to have blocked her hearing at all.

Everyone was surprised. Holding their breath they started to backs off as Suzy walked to them.

"Above all. Give back to me what you stole!!" Suzy demanded. Then, as a rewind of a videotape, Suzy's appearance turned back from human-pig to her original sexy self at the difference that she still didn't have any boobs at all. For some reason, Ginger still kept them.

"What's this!!" Hank said as people started to become extremely tumultuous.

"This my dear Hank is the main event!!" Suzy smiles as everything had gone according to her expectations. "People act evil when they are in groups, I knew and all of you fell into my trap. So now, it's time to harvest the spoils of my work. It's time to punish you all" Suzy said.

People tried to run away, but they found it impossible to move. "Oh! It seems you have discovered a side effect of the spell. You won't be able to escape until I say it so" Suzy said, already getting wet as her mind calculated the outcome of her punishment. "From women, I would like to have your sex appeal and curves. From men, your muscles and a foot of height. Now come and give me what I want" Suzy ordered and with horror, everyone walked toward her.

As soon as the first people touched her, Suzy moaned as her face shifted into one of pure ecstasy. She felt how the powers of others left them just to flow into her body.

Since men had been the last to use the spell on Suzy, they were the closest to her. The first infusion of men's attributes felt exquisite. Suzy saw Wright gasping as his muscles vanished and he shrunk while Suzy grew. As her arms, legs, and torso expanded, Suzy saw them also getting simultaneously thicker as the lifetime of workouts Wright did became part of them. But just as she was getting used to such a great feeling, a massive surge of power flew into her as Joe, one of five semi pro bodybuilders of the gym, touched her. Suzy roared as Joe simply shrunk below her eye level and her muscles bulged and grew tremendously. This was the first time draining such a muscular mass from a man, as Joe had been more muscular than Wright and Jack combined. If one bodybuilder had felt so good, she couldn't wait to have the other four.

When the first women approached her, Suzy enjoyed having some breasts at last. The first women weren't particularly busty, but she felt great having her breasts getting heavier. Her boobs started to push out her shirt, straining it even more. It wasn't too long before her growing torso and swelling breasts tore off her shirt. The same happened with her pants and her legs were so thick and her ass so juicy that her shorts looked like they were painted on her hips and buttocks. But as great as her swelling curves felt like, she could feel the raw sexiness of those women filling her, making her sexier, more alluring, more attractive, more irresistible.

As more and more people surrender their gifts to Suzy, she could feel herself overcoming her limitations. She was transforming into more than just a woman. As her biceps were bulging with the stolen power from the men, she felt other sets of muscles improving too. After her waist had tightened up by assimilating hundreds of hours of sit-ups, Suzy patted her tummy enjoying how hard it felt. By touching it, she caressed a well defined six-pack of muscular abs. She only regretted not being able to see them as her breasts had reached their former glorious size, and were blocking everything under them. As her body kept growing bigger with each man, most people weren't taller than her chest, so they went out of her sight when they approached her.

Just to prove her point, she saw Mrs. Wilson vanishing under her bust. Suzy braced herself for what will happen next. As soon as the hands of Mrs. Dwight touched her, Suzy gasped as she felt the refined and sophisticated beauty of a matured woman merged with hers. But that was not all she felt as her breasts tingle like crazy and soon enough her big tits were inflating once more. Mrs Dwight had been the only woman with bigger tits than Suzy in the gym. Being a mother of three had given her gargantuan breasts. It was rumored that she wore a J-cup bra, but none of that matter as that impressive size was quickly siphoned out of her to make Suzy hyper busty. She roared as her mamonthal breasts ended up tearing up her shirt flashing out at all people what should be the biggest natural breasts on Earth. As Suzy's huge hands weren't able to properly caress her huge endowments, it became quite obvious the incredible size Ginger obtained after stealing Suzy's breasts were not enough to keep her the biggest around.

Suzy enjoyed her power trip too much as she kept growing stronger and sexy with each person that came to her. When she thought she couldn't get more muscular, another man gave her a boost bringing a lot of pleasure and while the growth rate of her muscles was decreasing, Suzy could feel her muscular tissue improving to a more subtle level. She touched her muscles and sensed how hard they were becoming. She could even feel the muscles inside her own body getting stronger too. Even men didn't have muscles there, she felt her womanhood could crack nuts if she tried it. That powerful her body was becoming and she loved it.

As she kept growing, everything around her was shrinking. Suzy smiled as she was taller than most of the gym machines. People started to look like little kids to her. At first she had been outgrowing them so fast her mind didn't have time to adjust, but after calming down, she felt a high pleasure where people's hands were touching her. At first they were touching her shoulders, then her ribs, then her abs, but now they were touching her thighs, a bit lower each time. She knew the bigger she got, the less she would grow with each unwilling donation, but imagining that normal people were as tall her pussy sent thrills of arousal to her body.

Since she couldn't resist to find out how big she was, Suzy moved her large hand and grabbed at the woman touching her thigh. She knew it was Mrs. Tanning due her curly hair. Grinning, she pushed her against her body and smiled as she couldn't even come close to her waist. If a woman was that tall, the shrunken men would be even smaller than that. The idea that former tall and muscular men had been reduced to scrawny teensy guys that will have to stand on their tiptoes to lick her pussy drove her crazy. She definitely will need to try that.

Having run out of guys close to her to drain, Suzy smiled to see Hank trying his best to resist. Since he had been having sex with Ginger, he had some distance, but he was getting closer. There were still a fair number of girls approaching her, but Suzy decided to speed things up, so she walked toward him. She lifted her foot, which was totally bare since she had outgrown her shoes after between the 5 or 6 men, and covered a distance of 4 feet in a single step. When her foot touched the ground, her more than 2000 lbs of body weight crushed the tiles of the floor and shook the gym to its foundations. And while her first step made people stumble, the second one made them fall flat on their asses. Suzy couldn't avoid it but just laughed at the scene.

Five steps from Suzy covered the distance of 20 feet from her and her prize. She saw Hank crawling backward trying to get away from her. Since he was laying on the floor, she had to bend down her torso and stretch both arms to grab him. She smiled as her hands secured him.

For a moment Hank was afraid Suzy would step on him, but as she lowered herself, he was caught at the size of her huge breasts coming down to him. Each one of them the size of basketballs. He was mesmerized by the size of them until he was shocked by the iron grip Suzy had on him. "Take your hands off me!" he shouted as he found himself being lifted into the air.

"Oh, Hank, is that you?" Suzy giggled as she lifted him to see his face. The fact that she was lifting an adult man that weighed 350 lbs and not feeling any strain by doing it made Suzy feel powerful, but the fact that he was struggling with his muscles, which lift more than 600 lbs, to break free from her grasp and failing miserably told her how incredibly strong she had become.

"Let me go you, freak! You won't get away with this!" Hank said, trying to escape.

"Brave words for a man that took my muscles and didn't expect to be punished?" Suzy smiled. "But as you can see, punishing bad men has made them bigger than ever" she said flexing her biceps. As she did that, she tensed her grip on Hank unconsciously making him expel the air of his lungs as she almost crushed his ribcage. "Oh crap! I'm sorry. I don't know my own strength" Suzy sincerely apologized. "This is what happens when you take the muscles and strength of 5 semi-pro bodybuilders and a few other guys too" she said quite happily with how big and hard her muscles were. "But as impressive as they are, they can always be bigger" she grinned.

"I won't let you steal my muscles!" Hank said, still struggling to get free.

"Steal your muscles? You make it sound like I'm the bad one here" Suzy sighed. Then, she shivered as she felt a new dose of femininity rushing into her body. Her ass grew a bit more bigger, her breasts not much, but she felt her lips getting more kissable as her throat tingled.

Once she felt the new donation become part of her, she noticed Hank looked at her enthralled for a moment before he resumed his attempts to get away from her. "Uhm... I have an idea"

Suzy said in a voice that sound quite erotic. A voice she recognized must have belonged to Lain, but now it was her to command. "I won't take your muscles... yet. First, I want you to see the sexy new me" Suzy grinned as she noticed that none of the promoters of the gym had still come to her.

Suzy had already improved her beauty a few times, her larger than life breasts made evident she had taken the charms of many women, but none of them was a promoter. Each of them were quite beautiful and sexy with generous curves that called men attention. If one of the promoters was sexy enough to lure a man, she couldn't wait to find out what would be the result of concentrating so much allure.

"Feel honored Hank. You have the first row for a show once in a lifetime" Suzy said as she felt the hands of the promoters touching her. Suzy moaned with what should be several voices at once that little by little unified into the most sensual and arousing voice that had ever existed. Her face shifted into pure perfection as she Suzy absorbed the most beautiful traits of the girls. Her eyes turned into a mix of green and blue, her nose was cute and small, her lips got bigger and redder. Every inch of her face was refined beyond any possible limit. Hank felt what it should be to stare into the face of a goddess. Her eyes seemed to devour his mere soul. The warmth of her breath burned his skin. Her smell was strong enough to cause him an erection.

"Did my ravenish presence give you a hardon Hank?" Suzy said with a voice that made most men present mess their pants. "Let me take care of that". She used her white sparkling teeth to pull down his pants. Then as it was a lollipop, her huge lips swallowed his impressive shaft.

At the touch of her lips on his skin, Hank convulsed violently as he felt his penis shoot everything he could produce blacking out the soon sensation of muscle and height lost. Hank failed to notice how quickly he was shrinking on Suzy's hand or how she kept adjusting her grip on him as his huge muscles melted into nothing. Exhausted, he felt his body becoming limp and screamed "I hate you!!" before passing out in Suzy hands while seeing her pleased smile.

But as Hank rested on her hand, Suzy did her best no to crush him. For a moment it seemed Hank had shot everything he was, his height and muscles, into her mouth. Even though she knew that wasn't the case, Suzy found such an idea quite arousing. With a loud gulp, she swallowed Hank's seed. "Thanks for the protein shake Hank. I will make good use of it" she giggled caressing her belly just in time to feel the changes starting on her.

Suzy moaned as Hank's raw power flowed through her whole body. Her muscles grew extra bigger and harder giving such a strength boost, she thought she could possibly lift a large SUV without problems. Hank's height made her body grow taller and her eye level rose once again.

"HAHAHA. So much power!! And it's all mine. ALL MINE!! You are looking less than little kids to me now. HAHAHAHA. I'm getting so fucking big! SO FUCKING BIG!! ...Auch!!" Suzy yelled as her head bumped against a ceiling. "Oh my... I'm literally outgrowing this gym!!" she yelled as she had to crawl her head under the 13 feet tall ceiling. She considered for a moment punching a hole in the ceiling with her inhuman strength, but her growth stopped after the bump.

"Since this gym is too small for me, I better sit down" Suzy grinned, letting body fall on her butt. Her well padded butt cushioned perfectly her impact on the ground, but the gym floor simply exploded, raising a cloud of dust and debris as her massive buttcheeks, carrying her titanic weight, printed the shape of her derriere by smashing two large holes 2 feet deep on the floor.

Just after being sure she was comfortable, Suzy looked at Hank. He had shrunk considerably in her hand due her height loss and her own small growth spurt. "You must have donated more muscles than most. Thanks" Suzy giggled seeing how his arms looked like twigs compared to her hyper bulky gorilla arms. "Your body seems so fragile that I can break you easily apart with a little of my overwhelming strength," she grinned, really pleased to make such a fact possible.

Returning her attention to what mattered, Suzy noticed that only Jane and Zillian had not yet paid her tribute for their crimes. Both women were unconscious on the floor. Perhaps they passed out after the first time Suzy shocked the ground with her steps. "What a lucky coincidence that both of you were saved for the last. This is going to feel so good" Suzy smiled.

Putting extra care not to hurt the young mothers, Suzy stripped their tops to reveal their engorged breasts. "I do wonder if by taking your breasts, I could also take your lactating condition. Well, there is only one way to find it out" Suzy said, scoping both women in a very delicate manner. Then, she approached each of them or one of her mammoth boobs. She couldn't avoid grinning seeing that her one boobs seemed to pack almost the same mass of a grown woman. "OK young MILFs, surrender your beauty and curves to me" Suzy said.

Suzy gasped as her beauty was once more refined and improved. This time a little less as both women weren't actually very beautiful, but that wasn't what Suzy was eager to get. She moaned as she felt a kind liquid filling her breasts. As both women's breasts receded back into their chests, Suzy could hear sloshing sounds getting stronger into her boobs. Her already hard nipples started to get longer and thicker at a faster rate than her tits. "Oh my... here it comes... here it comes..." Suzy moaned as she dropped the women on the ground without much care, as she could already feel she had obtained what she wanted from them. Then, with her hands free, she started to massage her erect nipples. "Oh fuck!! This sensitivity. It's just so damn good!" Suzy moaned lost at the feeling. She grinned as she had not only stolen the mass, but the nerve endings of all the women, making her new mammaries several times more sensitive than they should be for their size. Suzy was so drunk in the feelings of massaging her nipples that she gasped when her milk leaked out. "Oh yes!! I am finally lactating. I need to taste it" she said.

Regaining control of herself, Suzy lifted one of her huge tits making it expel milk due her handling. Without wasting time, she grabbed her nipple and aimed it into her mouth before giving it a good tug. She was rewarded by a hot stream of white milk that came into her mouth and she hungrily gulped it down her throat. "Oh wow! It feels so good, but my breast isn't large enough to put my nipple in my mouth. Time to fix that" Suzy grinned as she looked at Ginger who was so absorbed in seeing what she had become that she didn't even try to run away.

"What are you doing Suzy? We have a deal!" Ginger said terrified as Suzy picked her up. "You promise me that you won't punish me if I help you take on Hank muscles and lure people into using the spell” she said, making everyone gasp and hate her for selling them out.

“I don’t remember making such a promise” Suzy giggled with the innocence of an angel, but deep down Ginger felt it was a demon's laughter. “I did promise that I won’t be taking your muscles if I get Hank ones, so I will honor our deal. Not that your muscles will be of any use compared to these” Suzy said, flexing her free hand just to pop out a bicep bigger than Ginger’s entire body. “It’s incredible to feel such immense strength running inside me” she said.

“See? You became like that because I help you and since you look very pleased, can you let me go?” Ginger pledge. “Please, please. I did what you asked me to do. Please” she begged.

“Still, you betrayed me Ginger. I taught you the spell and you used it on me” Suzy said.

"I already told you I was just kidding. I didn't know it could really work." Ginger defended herself.

"You already had big boobs but you had to steal mine to seduce Hank. Well, it seems you got what you were after, so as a punishment, I'll get your boobs along with the ones you stole from me. That way, it will be hard for you to pick a man again” Suzy laughed as Ginger's bust, which until minutes ago had seemed so large, disappeared into her incredibly voluminous one.

“Not my boobs! Give them back! You promised!” Ginger cried aloud while bursting into tears.

“Welcome back stolen boobs” Suzy said feeling good by the new weight of her breasts as they grew a few cups more. This time, she lifted both breasts with her hands and she was happy that she could stick not only one, but her two nipples into her mouth easily. Suzy eyes rolled at the pleasure of sucking her own nipples. “Oh fuck!!” she gasped releasing both of her nipples as a blindblowing orgasm shook her deep into her core. Her bouncing breasts ended up spraying at everyone in front of her with her milk. Ginger got the worse part as she had her mouth opened and felt like she was shot with a fire hose. She coughed a lot as she almost drowned with milk.

“You look so pathetic for not being able to handle some of my milk” Suzy laughed. “But I feel sorry for you. Taking your beauty won’t improve me too much, so I will take something I can use better. Your training knowledge” Suzy grinned. “With it I can build more muscle on my own”

“Nooooo!” Ginger cried as all her years of studies and experience slipped off from her mind.

“Arrggg!! So much knowledge. I love it!! Now I know how to properly stimulate these big guns of mine to make them even bigger and stronger. Hahahahaha!” Suzy laughed, flexing her arms into a bodybuilder pose. Even seated, the mirrors in the gym weren’t big enough to reflect her extraordinary body. She had just turned herself into a giantess with big tits, bulging muscles and an enslaving beauty. “Having absorbed so much muscle and tits has made me really horny. So, in reward for your contribution to make me so fucking sexy and powerful, I will let you have feel me up. Come on, don’t be shy. I’m all yours” Suzy smiled as she laid down on the ground.

With her head on the floor, she finally could appreciate how much she had changed at the people in the gym. Now, the smallest woman towered over the men, but it was only their height that let Suzy realize which were female. Without their curves and beauty, women looked almost sexless. The men without their muscle and height looked smaller than teenagers. Still, even though she knew people must be hating her so much, they couldn't resist her. Her aroma was loaded in borrowed pheromones of so many women that it was hard for men to think straight. They just moved and started to touch and lick Suzy womanhood. Some climbed over her torso to play with her breasts and drink her milk. Some women didn't seem that interested as they kept their distance, so Suzy knew she still had to get more sex appeal and allure if she really wanted to make all women desire her. But that could wait for later, as in that moment, Suzy truly enjoyed how more than 20 people were trying their best to please her.

Seeing how the flat women were suddenly kissing and fondling the breasts their own flesh had nurtured and helped to grow was so arousing, that Suzy cried an uproarious laughter that filled the gym while experiencing the first of many orgasms she will be having the following hours.

It was the middle of the night when Jack woke up as his whole bed was shaken. Thud! Thud! Thud! Were the noises he heard one louder than the other. "An earthquake?" he gasped as his room started to shake. "What the hell?" he gasped as suddenly the foundations of his home were shaken and he found himself being thrown from his bed as something downstairs seemed to have collapsed due to the movement. Looking at his clock, it was past midnight. Taking a gun from his nightstand, he decided to investigate the source of the noise.

He exited his bedroom very quietly and walked toward the stairs. Since his house was built as a duplex apartment, his bedroom was on the second floor, and the space from the entrance to the living room wasn't divided by a floor giving a space of 16 feet from the carpet to the roof. Standing in the balcony, he saw from above how the light of the outside was entering his home as the wall where his door was had just fall apart. Pieces of bricks were spreaded over his living room, but what call his attention was the sturdy door which was on the floor broken in two.

"How did this happen?" Jack said, rushing down the stairs toward his damaged entrance when suddenly the light of the outside vanished and a strong sound was heard. He could swear hearing the ground cracking as the movement made him lose his balance and he fell down the stairs. He thought he was going to get his neck broken, but he found himself crashing into something very solid. "Ouch!!" he screamed. Trying to stand up, he grabbed the surface of the object he had bumped into. For a moment, he thought it was a tree, since it felt quite solid and robust, but he wasn't in his yard. Also, the surface wasn't rough as wood should be. On the contrary it was soft to his touch, even though it was quite firm. Besides, it smelled very good.

"Jack, is that you who bumped into me?" a feminine voice called his name from a high place. "Wait, don't move. I'm looking for the light switch" she said when suddenly the room was lit.

Jack blinked a few times as the light had blinded him. When his vision focused again, he gasped to see the object in front of him was a pillar made of muscle. Turning to his side, he noticed another pillar next to the first one. He stepped back to get a better look and noticed both pillars were joined above and in the middle of them was a shape he knew very well. "What the...?" he cried in despair as he realized he was seeing a muscular shapely thigh. The pillars were actually human legs that were so thick and muscular that were hard to believe. He looked down and the ankles were just inches below his neck. Then, dug it on the floor were a pair of large naked feet. One of them was big enough to fit his two feet on it. In panic, he raised his head to watch the biggest pussy he had ever seen and above them the hardest set of abs any man would kill to have. Then, he tried to look into the face of the owner of such a powerful body, but couldn't as his vision was blocked by two enormous tits casting a large shadow over him.

"Where are you? I can't see you. Are you hiding under my tits?" said the female voice.

"Who... who are you?" Jack babbled a bit after walking backwards to see the most gorgeous woman in the face of the planet smiling... no... grinning at him.

"Haha. Don't you recognize me? I don't blame you. I have changed a lot since the last time we saw each other. You tried to rape me a few months ago, remember it?" she said.

Jack was stunned as the girl that shrunk him and stole his muscles just to make herself grow and get strong since that has returned to finish the job. "It was you!!" he said in anger. "I didn't thought you will be stupid enough to return, but as you see, I have been preparing for this day" Jack said pointing his gun to her. "Give me back my size, bitch, or else?" he threatened.

With a sudden movement of her hand, Suzy took the gun from Jack in a blink of the eye. "Or else?" she repeated as she crushed the gun in her hand. Seeing Jack's eyes popping out of his face certainly made her travel back to his home quite worthy. "Look Jack. I'm not here to fight you or punish you. I'm here to actually reward you" she said.

Jack just raised an eyebrow not trusting any word Suzy spoke.

"Even though I had your credit card, you never cancelled it. You let me have your money and thanks to it, I was able to take care of myself and made it possible that I got this incredible body" she said flexing her massive muscles doing a few bodybuilder poses to show off her power.

"At least, I'm no longer the only one that lost his height and muscles" Jack muttered behind his teeth, but Suzy could hear him very well and giggled at his comment.

"No, you are not. A lot of strong fellas from a local gym donate their lifetime workout gains along with some height to me. Now that I'm so big, you look so small that it's kind of cute" she cooed.

"Fuck! It took me a lot of time to recover all the muscle you took from me. I was planning to look for you and make you pay if you couldn't restore me, but now, what was the point of having almost killed myself in the gym when you just used your magic and gotten in one of your arms more muscle that I could possible dream to have in my whole body" Jack said defeated.

"Awww... don't be like that" Suzy said, noticing for the first time that indeed Jack seemed to have rebuilt his muscles. He was still below 5 feet tall, but his body looked as strong as the first time they saw each other. She revived the same arousal and attraction she felt in the past. She wasn't mistaken, when she decided to come to his home. She definitely had a crush on him. "Anyhow, I was in the neighborhood and believe it or not, you took my virginity away. You were the first of many men I had sex with, but my first no less" she grinned quickly shattering any chance that he rebuild his ego. "But, I came here to give you a chance. If I'm being honest, no man has taken me as you did. If you do it again with the same passion and force as before, I will take you with me. You can be my favorite sex toy. So, if you want to be with me, start licking it!"

"What?" Jack said in shock as Suzy used her fingers to spread out her pussy lips.

"Lick it! Lick my pussy and arouse me like your life depends on it" Suzy said.

"You can't be serious!" Jack said in disbelief.

"Do you see what happened to your entrance wall? Since I got so big, I kind of knocked your door with my toe just to have it split in two. Annoyed, I knocked on your door to call your attention, but I didn't control myself and my fist made the wall explode. If I was able to carry such destruction without wanting it, do you really want to know what will happen if I get angry?" Suzy warned him. "So you better start licking or I will crush you under my foot, understood?!"

Jack only nodded in agreement. He knew she was not joking and considering her weight, he may have ended up as a blood stain spread over his floor as for certain, her foot could cover his whole torso without problems. Defeated, he walked closer to Suzy, but then realized he had a problem. Stretching his hands, he barely reached the fingers Suzy was using to spread her pussy. Even on his tiptoes, he couldn't reach her sex, and if his fingers couldn't much less his tongue. Suzy's pussy was above his head, but it was too high for him to do anything.

"Are you really going to disobey me?! Perhaps, I was mistaken and you don't deserve to be with me. If you really prefer to die, so be it" Suzy said, lifting her foot.

"No please. I can't reach your pussy. I'm too small. I really can't!!!" Jack cried out with fear.

"Oh! right. Silly me" Suzy giggled as she lowered her foot. Since her breasts blocked her view of Jack once he stood under them, she thought he was considering refusing giving her oral sex.

"We will have to improvise. Good thing you have a very high ceiling. This body of mine needs a lot of space" she said, walking toward the counter in his kitchen. It was made of marble, so it should hold her. Being careful, she sat on the cold stone and the material protested due her weight. She flexed her legs and tried to put most of her weight on them. "Better be quick. I don't know how long this sturdy rock will be able to hold my mighty ass" Suzy giggled.

Jack gulped down as he saw how the muscles on Suzy's legs bulged and grew bigger due the pressure Suzy was putting on them. He imagined if his head was trapped between her calf and thigh, it would be easily crushed into pulp and she may even not notice it. Fearing for his life, he started to fondle Suzy's enormous pussy with his hand. Suzy had gotten so big that her pussy was almost the size of his face. With great repulse, he approached it and started licking it.

"Oh! That's Jack. Just how I remember it!" Suzy moaned, feeling quite aroused. Dominating Jack felt good. He was so small and weak. He was at her total mercy and that excited her very much.

That kind of thought got her so lost in pleasure, that she forgot to balance her weight. As her building orgasm kept growing, she moaned and gasped louder putting her hands on the counter. Her nails were digging into the rock as it was sand and the counter started to crack.

As Jack got afraid, Suzy grabbed his head and pressed it against her pussy. "Don't dare to stop" she said, very close to achieving her orgasm. Her strong hand buried his face into her sex and soon Jack panicked trying to get free. She knew she could be suffocating, but his frantic efforts were only increasing her arousal. Then, like a volcano, Suzy came launching Jack backward with the power of her orgasm while the counter broke apart and finally crumbled under her weight. Suzy's buttcheeks slammed into the ground and the house was shaken as the mighty mini giantess kept convulsing due her intense orgasm. "You did good!!" she moaned.

While Suzy was enjoying the aftermath of her orgasm, Jack was coughing. He thought for a moment he would have died. He could already see the news headlines. Rich man died suffocated by a vagina. He shook his head and decided it would be better to run away from her.

"Where do you think you are going?" Suzy said, closing her legs around Jack making him freeze in place. She was sure not to pin him against her muscular calves, so she pressed her feet together nad, made her legs form an oval shape around him. She grinned as he looked like a little puppy trapped behind a fence of solid female muscle. "We still haven't had sex, so you are not safe yet. Now, take off your pants. I want your cock inside me" she said drawing her feet toward her sex while spreading her legs making Jack jump foward to avoid bieng hit by her feet.

Standing close to Suzy, Jack knew it would be better to nod and obey her without a murmur. Then, he gasped as Suzy gave him a quick jerk off wrapping just one of her long fingers around his flaccid penis. Under her touch, Jack moaned aloud and his penis started to get erected. He could see Suzy's grinning as she moved to use two fingers to jerk off his enlarging cock. But when she used three fingers on it, her grin turned into a sigh as his penis reached its full size.

"Oops, was your penis that small originally? I knew it would shrink when I took your height, but not this much?" Suzy said disappointed as Jack's penis was thinner and smaller than her little finger. "Also, I'm a lot bigger than the last time we met, so it's not entirely your fault" Suzy said not wanting to reveal that even in his diminished state, Jack's boner was bigger than any of the drained guys in the gym. "I don't think I can feel much with it, but let's see if I can make it a bit bigger" she said, having a brilliant idea. Without saying a word, she grabbed Jack's torso

"What are you doing?" Jack gasped alarmed as he was lifted above several feet into the air.

"Hold on Jack" Suzy said, placing him on top of her right breast which was big enough to hold him. For her, his body felt not heavier than a teddy bear, but for him, her breast was as huge as a yoga ball spreading his legs around it. "You are going to love it!" she said, stroking his penis.

"OH FUCK!!" Jack yelled as Suzy's large lips swallowed his shaft entirely. He gasped as Suzy sucked on his penis like it was straw on a cup. His hands grabbed her lips looking for support and he was surprised at how soft and warm her lips felt. Being so close to her face, he could see how beautiful Suzy was. But as he was admiring her beauty, he cried in pain as he felt as if Suzy was trying to rip off his penis. She was sucking so hard that he feared his internal organs would end up being sucked up. He barely endure the pain as he ejaculated like crazy.

Suzy felt a sadistic pleasure watching his frowning face due the pain she was inflicting him. Then, she giggled feeling his seed filling her mouth as his body bucked over her breasts while holding her lips. Exhausted, his small body collapsed over her face, sweating like a pig.

"Haha. I made you ejaculate so fast..." she said after gulping his yummy seed. "... now you must drink some of my milk since I drank some of yours" she grinned rubbing her left nipple.

"Your milk?" Jack asked surprised as Suzy moaned quite loud as her fingers got her nipple quite erect and plump. Soon, white drops of liquid started to leak caused by her sexual arousal.

Suzy lifted Jack from her right boob and sat him on her left knee. Then, without warning, she guided her dripping nipple into his face before forcing it into his mouth. "Suck" she commanded.

Jack cried as Suzy's nipple almost knocked off his teeth. Her teat hit him like a hard fist letting him know that even there her muscles had gotten harder. Fighting the tears of pain, he sucked her nipple like a baby. Her boob was so much bigger than him as he couldn't see Suzy's face.

Suzy purred and cuddled the back of Jack's head feeling how her milk was flowing down his throat. Happy with that, she lifted her right boob and sucked her free nipple with her mouth. Feeling the double tug on both of her nipples at the same time brought her a lot of pleasure and before she knew it, the high ecstasy she felt became a powerful orgasm.

"Oh Jack. I'm definitely going to keep you. Besides, this house is perfect for me. We are going to have a lot of fun, or at least I will" Suzy laughed while Jack cried while kept sucking her milk.

Part 6

Suzy purred as she woke up by a pleasant licking of her pussy. She looked down on herself, but her huge breasts didn't let her see past them, she had to lift herself a bit to notice a bulge under her sheets moving where her sex should be. "Good morning Jack. How does my pussy taste today?" she grinned, pushing his face into her pussy. Feeling his head slipping through her lower lips always made her mornings fill with energy and excitement. It didn't take too long for his futile attempts to break free brought her to the first orgasm of the day. "Oh yes. You are my favorite! Thanks for such a wonderful wake up call" Suzy moaned, lifting the sheets to pick up Jack with her hands. "Let's see how big I became, should we?" she grinned.

Suzy carefully stepped from her bed and was careful not to turn into pulp any of the unconscious bodies laying on the floor. There were very skinny men no taller than 4 feet tall, and women with no curves at all dispersed over the giant bedroom. "Last night things went a bit crazy. I never expected I could revive the experience of what happened in the gym 4 months ago" Suzy smiled, feeling the extra power she collected last night. "Still, let's see if it worked"

Suzy carried Jack until a wall where she kept the record of her height. She lifted him over head with really no effort at all, but the fact that she flexed her arms to do it, made her biceps bulge with power. Jack gulped, afraid as one of Suzy's arms was thicker than his whole body... without flexing. It scared him a lot seeing Suzy flexing as she was a mountain of muscles.

As Jack was doing his best to mark the wall, Suzy recalled the day she returned home last month after having been absent half a year. Everybody that knew her, including her parents, were surprised to see how much she had changed. She chuckled remembering how simple she explained her sudden growth. "I grew" were her words and nobody dared to question her.

Since her new height made it impossible for her to get back into her house, Suzy lived 3 months in Jack house until her new home was ready. Using Jack money, she reformed the warehouse next to her parents home to accommodate her huge body. The roof was 30 feet tall and all the furniture was built and reinforced to be able to stand the weight of a 25 feet tall muscular woman. Still, since she weighed more than 7k lbs, building a two story building was out of question. Her weight will collapse any structure that wasn't supported by the ground. She even knew her own house should be sinking in the ground each time she moved around it.

"It's done mistress!" Jack exclaimed, having learned his place a few months ago. He was no more than Suzy's plaything. He did everything she commanded him to do. He had seen what she does to people that don't like to obey her, and he was glad that she only took one foot of his height. His muscles were even bigger than were originally since Suzy herself had been training him. She wanted him strong so he could sexually please her. But as she grew, she demanded more from him. It was impossible to keep up with her. He feared his usefulness was running out.

Suzy grinned and turned around to see the mark in the wall. When she saw it her grin faded. "What the...!!" she yelled in anger, setting down her foot hard. The anti seismic structure was shaken violently and the reinforced floor couldn't hold her wrath, suffering a severe dent that left an impression of Suzy feet on it. The unconscious people suddenly were woken up and they ran away fearing it was a powerful earthquake. "20 feet tall! I grew only one foot. Damn!!" she yelled

The stampede of naked people coming out from her house brought the attention of Suzy's parents. "Oh crap! I don't need to deal with them right now. Get right of them Jack" she said, placing him on the ground. He knew better than to contradict her, so he went out to talk to them.

Suzy knew very well there were two things her parents worried about her after she returned home. One was obviously her active sex life. While Jack was a good sex toy, he couldn't handle her. No man alone was able to satisfy her sexual overdrive. As result, she frequently invites several men and woman to her house to have sex at the same time. Since her first experience with sex, she liked it to be hard, so she didn't mind moaning and screaming during her long sex sessions. The problem was that her moans and screams sounded like thunder due to her powerful voice and were heard not only parent's house but also for her neighbors as well.

Suzy couldn't avoid chuckling, recalling the time during her first days after returning home that her parents knocked into her house to complain about the loud noise. Her parents were left in total shocked, as she opened the door completely naked, with her right hand over the butt of a naked man at which she was trusting on her vagina, two women had their legs wrapped against her torso licking her breasts, and one man was seated over her neck while she sucked his dick. After her left hand to open a door that weighed more than a ton, she used it to grab the man on her face and lift him to pull away his dick from her mouth to talk. "I'm busy right now. What do you want?" she asked annoyed to be interrupted, even she continued having sex in front of her parents. After that day, they never bother knocking her door again while she had sex.

Noticing through the window that Jack has done his job and her parents are returning to their home, Suzy turned around and saw her magnificent body in the 30 feet tall mirror she ordered to be installed in one of her walls so she could see entirely her powerful body. As she saw her naked reflection, she recalled the other thing her parents were worried about was her walking around her house without clothes. She likes to be topless or totally naked but her parents didn't like the idea, and argued that she should be ashamed to tend to be naked in front of others.

"Why should I be ashamed? I am proud of my body. I don't want to cover my body with clothes and besides, can any of you imagine how much money I will need to spend to get clothes to fit this body, just to later discard them as I keep growing with time? I have spent a lot on building this house, so I don't plan to spend more money on something I don't need. Is that understood?" she remembered saying to them at that time and to emphasize her point, she stepped closer.

Unfortunately, due to her height, she couldn't see her parents face, but Jack told her that once she approached them, they gulped hard as they could no longer see their own daughter's face as it was blocked by her huge jiggling tits. They instinctively nodded their heads in agreement, Since Suzy couldn't see them, she took their silence as not understanding. When her parents saw their daughter's muscles wriggling with anger, they shouted "Yes yes" to avoid her wrath.

When Jack approached her, Suzy said "Well done Jack. I need a shower after a night of hot sex so join me. I need you to scrub my feet and ankles" she grinned, noticing him sighing.

The hot water felt marvelous over her muscular body. Suzy enjoyed particularly how water cascaded from her monstrous breasts. She massaged them, happily hearing the sloshing sound of the vast quantity of milk she carried on them.. A soft tug on her nipples was enough to make her milk flow. "My breasts are so fucking big" she grinned as she seemed to have wrecking balls attach on her chest. Each weighed twice what an average man does. Many men complained when she put her breasts on them during sex. The idea of her tit's weight alone was enough to smother and kill a man brought great joy, so she enjoyed torturing men that way sometimes.

Feeling at Jack rubbing the lower part of her calves, Suzy grinned as this was the perfect time to try her new addition. "Perhaps I didn't grow as much as I expected, but let's see if last night's trap wasn't in vain. Stay still Jack. Don't move if you know what is best for you" Suzy warned.

Jack knew better to argue any ambiguous order from Suzy, so he remained still. He trembled in fear as thick pillars of muscle that were Suzy's legs slightly moved forward allowing the water of the shower to crash on him. "What the...?" he gasped as he suddenly got bathed. Having always been under Suzy's shadow meant he never got wet, but he found himself under a waterfall because the water running down her body concentrated in her ample ass and through the crack of her buttocks, the accumulated water formed a dense stream. Then, the water stopped falling and he felt relieved, just a sense of panic took him over as Suzy tree-like legs started to bend. "Oh no. Oh no... NOOO!" Jack screamed as he looked up and saw Suzy pussy descending upon him.

"Oh Jack!! That's the spot!" Suzy moaned as she felt Jack head popping into her vagina. It was a long time since she had something big inside her and while lately Jack had to use both his arms or legs to make her feel something, with her constant growth, that stopped to be enough, so she decided to take his whole body inside. "Now, let's see if the pussy elasticity I took for the women last night works" she said, feeling that Jack's shoulders were too broad to take in. Slowly, she let her weight do its job and her pussy, like a snake does with a thicker prey, spreaded her labia around Jack's body and continued slurping him in. "OH FUCK!!" she cried as Jack's ripped muscles were giving the best stimulation ever by rubbing her tight internal muscles as he slid in. "I can believe it!! My pussy is swallowing a full man. That big I have become and I love it!!" Suzy moaned as more and more of Jack was being crawled into her. She never had felt herself so stuffed before. When Jack head reached the end of her birth canal, she was at the edge of having an orgasm. "Oh Jack. I need the whole of you. Give yourself to me!" she commanded and Jack obeyed. He bent his legs and Suzy lost her balance letting her butt fall on the ground pushing the last of him deep into her pussy. "Oh fuck!!!" She cried resting her back on the shower wall just to see the bulge that the curled body of Jack was doing on the lower part of her abdomen. "I DID IT!! I HAVE YOU WHOLE!" she moaned rubbing her pussy while putting one of her nipples into her mouth to suck her milk. She cried louder as a strong orgasm blacked her out. Luckily, Jack was expelled like a cannonball out or he could drown inside her.

An hour later, Suzy and Jack were enjoying the Olympic pool that was built outside her house. She was wearing only a string bikini just to humor her parents when they pointed out she couldn't be naked outside for the neighbors to see. The 82 feet long pool was enough for Suzy to have space to relax and float. It's 9 feet deep meant that it barely covered her pussy when she walked into it. Still, she couldn't wait to outgrow her pool. She dreamed for the day when such a large structure would be like a hot tube with her head and feet resting on each edge.

Even though Suzy knew she was a mountain of muscles and there shouldn't be a creature stronger or bigger than her, she still wanted more. No matter how big her breasts were, no matter how sexy she was. She needed more. She was addicted to growing in power.

"I want to get bigger, stronger, bustier and much more" Suzy said, floating in the water looking into the clouds in the sky, stretching her arm to reach them. "But the fundamental problem is I have to lose something first before receiving what I need. So far, it hasn't happened yet, but what if someone wants my brilliant IQ. I have taken a few more points since I got Violet's intelligence. Having my 3 figures IQ taken away will turn me into an idiot right away. It's too risky" she sighed. "If only I knew more about this transfer magic, but Ms. never returned from her trip. A month later after I visited her, I went to her store and it had been turned into a coffee shop. They said Mrs. Wiley wasn't sure when she would return as was following a promising lead that will keep her away. Since then, nobody has heard from her" she said.

"Even if she is far away, your magic scroll will work, right?" Jack said resting between Suzy massive tit pillows. It was those little times that living with Suzy made his life worthy. "I mean, if you borrow Mrs. Wiley's knowledge of magic, you could find better ways to use it, right?" he said.

Suddenly Suzy's eyes went wide open as her powerful mind never actually considered such a possibility. She hadn't cast the spell yet, so why not use it to take Mrs. Wiley's magic knowledge?

"JACK! You are a fucking genius!" Suzy excitedly scooped at her little lover from her chest just to cover him in lots of kisses as she stood up in the pool. "All the conditions are fulfilled. Since it has been a long time, perhaps Mrs. Wiley won't remember me so she won't know I took her knowledge from her, but even if she knew, she doesn't know my name or know where I live. She may try to look for me in the university, but we are miles away. She will never find me here. I have changed so much that she won't recognize me and without her knowledge, she won't know she can punish me. It's perfect" Suzy exclaimed as her heart beated incredibly fast against her chest. placing Jack at the edge of the pool. "Go and bring me the spell. With Ms. Willy's knowledge I will be a goddess!!" she laughed as Jack rushed inside.

With the magic scroll in her hand, Suzy couldn't avoid trembling, but not for fear, it was for pure excitement. The paper was now so small on her thumb that it was impossible to read. Fortunately, she had heard the spell so many times that she knew it by heart. "Abiha Katanahacha, I want all the magic knowledge from Mrs. Wiley!!" she said from the top of her lungs. Suddenly she twisted her back and her eyes rolled upward for a moment, before they rolled back with spark on them. "Oh yes. It worked! I'm getting in all at once" Suzy moaned as she turned one of her hands to craft a large flame on it. Then, from the other palm appeared sparks of electricity. "There is so much knowledge flowing into my head. Forget about silly love potions of flying on broomsticks. I can do so much more now" Suzy laughed. "This is so great. With this knowledge I can really become a goddess. I'm learning so many things, I even now know how to make my body invisible" she shouted, full of joy and great pleasure.

"I guess that explains why I'm visible again" a female voice sighed.

Suzy froze recognizing the voice. She looked down just to see at the corner of the pool at Mrs. Wiley smiling at her. She was really tiny Tinier than a doll waving at her.

"Mrs. Wiley? How can you be here?" Suzy said, quite nervous. All her feelings of greatness, gone.

"You already know it, child. I have been following you using an invisible spell. But since you took my knowledge, it seems I don't know how to maintain it" Mrs. Wiley said, looking at her hands.

Feeling confident again, Suzy said. "What a pity you don't know how the transfer spell works anymore ah? With your knowledge in my head, you are no longer a threat" Suzy grinned.

"Good thing I wrote here what to say" she grinned, showing the palm of her hand showing the words 'You stole my knowledge without my permission, so I wanted it back' before voicing them.

"No... no... no" Suzy cried as all the great magic knowledge simply vanished from her head.

"Child. You knew I would need to punish you, but still you did it . It's so sad" Mrs. Wiley sighed.

"Mrs. Wiley. I did wrong. Please, forgive me!!" Suzy said feeling trapped in the power of the spell.

"You'd never forgive someone who said those words before, so why should I?" Mrs. Wiley grinned. "I must say that you really exceeded my expectations. You have taken so much without getting punished, so it's time to correct that. First, I want everything you gain from others using the magic spell, and second, I'm tired of looking so old, but don't worry I won't take your youth. I want your youthful looks. That way you will live all your life looking as old as me" she grinned.

"Oh no!! You won't do it" Suzy screamed. Knowing the spell very well, she knew a person punished couldn't hurt or get away from the punisher until the punishment is mentioned. Since Mrs. Wiley already voiced it, Suzy had a few seconds before the magic took everything for her.

"What do you think you are doing?" Mrs. Wiley groaned as Suzy's massive hand came down on and grabbed her. She gasped at the pressure Suzy's muscular arm ejerced over her old body.

"Sorry Mrs. Wiley. You can't take what is mine if you are dead" Suzy grinned, launching with all her strength the fragile body of Mrs. Wiley against the ground. The impact was so tremendous that the cement racked around the old lady's body. Still, Suzy saw the elder woman was still alive.

Shocked, Suzy lifted her foot and placed it a few feets into the air over the body of the old woman. Then, she slammed it down putting all her weight on it. The cement cracked even more as several thousand pounds crashed on it. Not wanting to risk any chance that Mrs. Wiley could survive, Suzy tensed all her muscles and proceeded to smash the ground with her foot over and over again in quick motion. The windows of her house and the ones nearby exploded due the seismic wave. Her pounding was so hard that miles away people experienced strong tremors.

As a cloud of dust covered her vision, Suzy left her foot on the ground, being sure that Mrs. Wiley's body should be no more than a blood stain on her sole. "Not even her bones could have survived that" Suzy sighed, cleaning the sweat on her forehead due all the effort she put in.

Then, to Suzy's horror, the cloud of dust dispersed enough to let her see Mrs. Wiley buried on the ground. Her body was still intact and only trapped under her foot. "That's not possible!!" Suzy gasped, feeling quite terrified. Her heart was racing and her adrenaline skyrocketed. She felt her great strength wasn't enough. A mountain of muscle was shaking like a leaf in the wind.

"Oh Fuck! Just die already!" Suzy screamed as she lifted her massive leg. Then, putting all her weight on it, she slammed using every ounce of muscle and strength in her body.

"Stupid child" Mrs. Wiley said as raising her arm to stop Suzy's crushing foot. The force of several hydraulic press machines couldn't even budge the decypted arm of the elder woman. "You don't realize your great strength is already becoming part of me" Mrs. Wiley grinned as she moved her arm like a person does to get a fly away, to tossed Suzy away from her.

"What the...?" Suzy gasped as her heavy body was tossed aside like she was weightless. She fell on the ground, her muscular back shattered the floor in pieces sending a new earthquake to shake all the nearby houses. People went out screaming as it seemed like the end of the world.

"Without your strength, I bet your body must feel quite heavy" Mrs. Wiley grinned standing up to brush the dust off her clothes. She enjoyed how Suzy's stolen power was flowing into her body.

"Stay away from me" Suzy said, quite afraid that Mrs. Wiley was right. She became aware of how weak she was feeling. Her superhuman strength was leaving her and she couldn't to stop it.

"It will take some time to bring so much from you, but you can already see the results" Mrs. Wiley smiled pointing at Suzy. As she did that her arm began to get bulkier, stronger.

"NO!! Not my muscles!!" Suzy yelled in horror as saw how her mighty bulging arm was slowly deflating; losing all the precious muscle she worked so hard to obtain. The raging veins over her over pumped biceps started to calm down as she was losing muscle tissue quite fast. As the girth of her arm decreased, Suzy's confidence did as well.

Mrs. Wiley approached with confidence toward Suzy. The elder woman didn't look so fragile anymore as she bravely walked in between Suzy spreaded legs. She grinned as Suzy tried to back off, but her body felt too heavy as her muscles had become a burden "You still hold so much child. Give me more" she commanded and Suzy gasped feeling how several of the gifts she had taken from others were slipping out of her body. "Mmmm... oh yes! That is what I wanted" she moaned, sensing different attributes filling her body. "Soon, all the things you stole will be mine" Mrs. Wiley grinned, keeping her gaze on Suzy.

Mrs. Wiley put her hands on her hips feeling how they started to wide out. She felt her butt slowly expanding too, but what she enjoyed the most was the swell of her breasts. "Ah! You are going to make this old body of mine quite curvy and very good looking" she moaned, sensing how the accumulated beauty and curves of dozens of models, strippers and hookers were slowly making their way into her. Suzy's youthful looks were already disappearing the wrinkles on her face.

"You planned this. You knew I will use the spell on you" Suzy said, realizing she never stood a chance against the elder woman. Her skin started to tingle in a sickening way and in horror, she saw how her smooth skin was getting drier. She felt wrinkles spreading over her face as her body was looking older and older with each passing second.

"But of course, child. Weren't you expecting the same from the people you share the spell with?"

Why should I be different?" Mrs. Wiley laughed. "I must say your taste was weird, but not bad" she said, flexing her arms to make her new biceps pop into view. She tensed her arm more, forcing her biceps to reach their peak. "Oooh!!! I'm feeling something" she said, flexing harder.

Suddenly Suzy gasped as she felt something being tore off from her. At the same time Mrs. Wiley moaned as her muscles instantly doubled their size. "Oh my... did you feel it too? It felt like I got all the muscle of one of the drained bodybuilders at once" she panted seeing her bigger and bulkier arms. "Let's see if I can get another one, should we?" she said flexing again. Suzy cried and Mrs. Wiley grew stronger again. "Oh wow. I'm becoming the wet dream of any bodybuilder, I only need to flex and..." she said doing it again and her muscles responded growing once more "... my muscles get bigger and harder. It feels like cheating. Hahahaha" she laughed flexing over and over again. Her biceps rising higher as she felt the whole set of stolen muscles, from one of the many men Suzy took away, become hers with each curl. But as her muscles grew, straining her clothes, those weren't the only things growing.

While it was not in the same amount, Mrs. Wiley beauty was increasing as well as the size of her breasts. She was getting very curvier to the point of having a nice hourglass. The fact she wasn't wearing a bra was evident as her swollen jugs were stretching the buttons of her blouse showing she wore no garment to hold their growth. Full and heavy, how breasts should be.

"Arrrrggggh" Suzy cried as she felt her muscles contracting and her breasts reducing their girth.

"Oh yes! I can feel him" Ms Willy grunted while flexing her arms forward to even tense her back. "Here comes Hank!" she roared as her muscles expanded dramatically. Her stretched blouse was shredded as her muscles hulked out from her body. "FUCK YEAH. THIS IS POWER!!" Ms Willy yelled sensing how the strength and muscles of the strongest man Suzy had drained was now hers. "My apologies for the language. It wasn't proper for a woman my age" she chuckled.

But as impressive Mrs. Wiley's growth had been, Suzy started to panic as she felt something changing in her. She gasped feeling boobs getting lighter and even saggier. Her once taunted bikini string was getting loser and her. She saw in despair as the world around her was growing bigger. Her brain was slowing down too. She no longer was able to keep up with what was going on. Everything she had gained was leaving her and she couldn't do something to stop it.

"Please Mrs. Wiley. Don't do this" Suzy said desperate as Mrs. Wiley was getting taller than her knee. The elder woman was getting bigger and sexier. Suzy watched in awe as Mrs. Wiley muscles got thicker, harder while hers were getting thinner and smaller. Suzy couldn't see her own face, but seeing how gorgeous Mrs. Wiley was getting, she knew her exotic beauty was being taken away too. The sight of the expanding breasts of Mrs. Wiley scared her a lot..

"Mmmm.... I'm getting so much from you, so much!!" Mrs. Wiley moaned as her body continued expanding rapidly in all directions. Her height rose from being at the level of Suzy's deflating breast, to being at the level of her eyes. "Ah, finally we see each other eye to eye. You look so old now" Ms Willy laughed, showing off her great muscles. Her legs looked thicker than trees. Her arms were bigger than a gorilla's. "Every fiber in my body is bursting with the power you stole from those bodybuilders. And these tits..." she said, caressing her enlarged boobs. "... only porn stars with boob jobs could get them this big" she said rubbing her nipples feeling how sensitive they have gotten. "Uhm... I can get them getting heavier. I feel your milk is coming!"

"No. Everything except that. Please!! Nooo!!" Suzy screamed as she felt her breasts getting less fuller. She saw in despair her brownish nipples returning to their usual pink color. Her elongated nipples shrunk and her areola reduced. The sloshing sound on her breasts diminishing.

Mrs. Wiley moaned as her breasts pushed forward with fury tearing up the last of her blouse. Her humongous breasts hanging quite heavy on her chest. Then, her modest nipples got fuller and thicker as they got darker. "This feeling is incredible!!" she said as her breasts got quite heavy and her nipples engorged like corks of bottles. "I can hardly wait to suck my own nipples, but these tits are getting too heavy, so I better take more of your muscle and size" she grinned.

Suzy gasped as the draining feeling was getting hold of her again. She watched in fear as Mrs. Wiley got even bigger while her body shrunk as a result. Soon, there was no doubt that Mrs. Wiley was now bigger than her. Her legs were looking thicker than her arms. Her calf looked more and more like a large tree. As the floor was getting closer for Suzy, she looked up just to see the mischievous smile of the now sexy Mrs. Wiley disappears behind her ballooning boobs. They were getting so big that she couldn't even see her face anymore. What makes her feel even worse is that she noticed white drops of milk already leaking from those turgid nipples.

"It's coming faster!!" Mrs Wiley moaned as her muscles bulged with power. "Hahahaha. I'm getting it all. ALL!!" she screamed as her body grew taller, her breasts inflated even more and her beauty was even more enrapturing. The shadow of her gargantuan body engulfed Suzy's shrinking one. "Where are you, child? Did I take too much that you disappeared" she laughed.

Suzy heard the powerful laughter coming from higher than her eyes could see. Suzy was trying to fight the tears to see her body almost back to her original state. All the fun and sex she enjoyed the last six months will be impossible to get if she was back to her old self. Her breasts had gotten so light that she knew her lactation was gone too. She was dumbed down to her original intelligence, while every piece of knowledge and skills she took from others were no longer accessible for her. "At least, I kept the muscles I built by myself" she said as consolation.

"There you are" Mrs. Wiley grinned as she looked down at the small shape of Suzy. "Come over here, child. I barely see you under my humongous boobs" she laughed, stretching her arm.

Suzy gasped as a thick arm came down on her. She froze in place at the sight of a giant hand coming for her. Fingers thicker and longer than her arms got wrapped around her body forcing the air from her lungs being expelled as they squeezed her. She cried in pain as she felt her bones being almost crushed to dust by the strength she had been so proud of. Suzy was surprised how easily her body was lifted. Even though she had done the same to countless people, she forgot her body should weigh less than a doll for the mountain of muscle in front of her. Her shock hadn't even passed when her body suffered a huge acceleration as she was propelled 17 feet tall into the air in less than a second. She screamed and passed out.

"I'm sorry. Did I lift you too fast?" Mrs. Wiley said as she saw the unconscious body of Suzy trapped in her hand. It was quite exhilarating for her being able to hold a human being in her hand like that without using any magic. The fact that her hand was so big and massive that covered most of Suzy's body wasn't lost on her. She was so strong that couldn't even feel the weight of Suzy's body. "Perhaps my iron grip was too much for your petite body?" she grinned, squeezing softly Suzy's body just to wake her up screaming in pain again.

"You are crushing me!!" Suzy yelled, feeling her body being squeezed too hard. When the pressure ended, Suzy gasped to look up to see the big face of a young lady smiling at her. Mrs. Wiley's hair had shifted from white to a fire red. She must have been quite a beauty in her youth... and with the beauty traits of several models improving her, she was truly mesmerizing.

"Thank you child, for your youthful looks. Now, instead of looking like a sexy cougar, I can be seen as a colleague babe. Even my massive tits got perkier and rounder," Ms. Willy smiled. "Unfortunately, it seems you really look older everywhere" she said, carefully opening her hand to caress Suzy's small and sagging boobs with her fingers. "Auch, even my nipples are now bigger than your tits. Hahaha!!" she laughed so hard that Suzy felt her ears about to explode.

Suzy looked down and sobbed as her body did seem to belong to a two hundred years old woman, instead of the young woman she really was. After noticing her body had gotten so small and decrepit, Suzy realized what Mrs. Wiley said was true. The small and sagging boobs on her elderly body were no bigger than those huge, engorged nipples. She felt disgusted hearing her once precious milk sloshing into the huge milk tanks Ms Willy had turned her breasts.

Mrs. Wiley moaned and rubbed her nipples making a few drops of milk leaked out. "My breasts are so full, can you suck on my nipple and give me some pleasure, grandma Suzy?" Mrs. Wiley said, bringing Suzy's mouth close to her nipples.

Even though she was dazed and had no power to resist, Suzy stood her ground and closed her lips. She wasn't going to get humiliated by being breastfeed against her will.

"Your puckering is adorable, child. But I want to see if my nipple can fit into your tiny mouth, so open it big" Mrs. Wiley said, circling her finger in front of Suzy's face. To Suzy's horror, she found her mouth being forced to get open, and as soon as her lips were parted enough, Mrs. Wiley forced her nipple into Suzy's mouth, almost dislocating her jaw to fit her huge teat. "Hahahaha! Your mouth is so pathetic that even my teat is too much for you!" she grinned feeling her milk flowing into Suzy's throat. Suzy was about to be drowned as she couldn't stop the milk and couldn't even gag on it. Fortunately, or unfortunately, Mrs. Wiley used her magic again to help her take more and more of her milk. Suzy's belly bloated making it looked like she was pregnant with triplets while Mrs. Wiley moaned and used her free hand to finger her more sensitive pussy.

Once Suzy couldn't drink Mrs. Wiley removed her from her nipple. "Please, please. I did what you asked. You have already punished me. Let me go, please!" Suzy begged, crying in desperation.

"Alright then. If that is what you really want, I will do it" Mrs. Wiley said as literally let Suzy go.

"What the...!!" Suzy screamed as Mrs. Wiley opened her hand in the air, letting her fall into the ground. Suzy dropped several feet to a certain death until she crashed into her back. Instead of ending paraplegic, if not dead, Suzy found herself able to get on her knees. The impact had hurt a lot and while she couldn't even muster enough strength to scream, somehow she was alive.

"Just don't say I'm not a merciful woman" Mrs. Wiley laughed, using her magic to make it possible for Suzy to survive the fall.

Suzy looked at her in fear as those massive bulking muscles were bulging and pulsating with each laugh she had. Even, her enormous breasts bounced heavily on her chest. She felt so insignificant that she felt less bigger than Mrs. Wiley's big toe.

"I'm so pleased with everything you have given me. These breasts for example are wonderfully big," Ms. Willy laughed trying her best to massage the immensity she had become. "But as impressive as my tits are, check out these bad boys" Mrs. Wiley said, flexing her arms, making Suzy gasp as it seemed like a mountain of pure muscles erupted from them. "Thanks for the gifts grandma Suzy. Have a good life" Mrs. Wiley laughed before vanishing into the thin air.

<Epilogue>

Inside a psychiatric hospital, two young nurses escort an old woman back to her room. They had to get her sedated as the elder woman tends to be delusional and gets very violent. Once locked in isolation, a security camera zoomed into the woman as she grabbed a mirror.

"Patient M-06 is back in her room" said a nurse as she stepped into Dr. Dacad's office. He was already seeing the image of the security camera. "We caught her walking around naked, again"

"I don't know why she has that kind of behavior. She just wakes up and doesn't get dressed. She is one of those patients that can't get better no matter how hard I try" he sighed, annoyed.

"What is her story doctor? It's true that she thinks she is really a young woman?"

"Indeed. Patient M-06 suffers a severe case of disconnection with reality. She insists that she is only 18 years old and that her body looks old because a witch stole her youthful looks"

"How awful. Do you think she can recover from her delusion?" the nurse asked.

"Hard to say. So far each time she faces the truth, she gets into a denial mode. Here, she is about to face reality" Dr. Dacad said as she showed the images of the monitor.

Inside her room, Suzy grabbed the mirror left on her bed. She looked at the face reflected on it. It was an old face covered in wrinkles with white hair. Her expression lacked any life on its own. "This is not me. This is not me. THIS... IS... NOT... ME!" she yelled, throwing the mirror into the ground. Then she cried, continuing repeating the same phrase over and over endlessly.
